Membrane 14—cont.

Exchequer; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him as constable.

Pardon to Robert son of Walter de Eboraco for the death of Robert Basset of Levenig; as it appears by inquisition made by Richard de Midelton that he killed him in self defence.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Roger de Leyburn, of Robert Chaumpyun of Athelington, from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

Confirmation of a grant by Roger de Munemuth to John de Turbervill of the marriage of Walter his eldest son, by a writing which the king has inspected.

Grant, at the instance of R. king of Almain, to Henry Gelleyn, burgess of Dorcestre, that he may build upon the place which he bought of William Germeyn and Alice his wife, for which he pays 4s. 6d. a year at the Exchequer, by the hands of the bailiff of that town.

May 26. Grant to Richard Deniel [in the margin: Daniel], going to Westminster. Ireland on the king's affairs, that William Folejambe, whom he has appointed in his place before the king, may attorn in his name whomsoever he will to gain or lose in pleas affecting the said Richard, from the eve of Whitsunday, 52 Henry III, until the following Easter.

Membrane 13.

May 30. Whereas the prior of Rochester lately mainperned with B. archbishop of Canterbury for 32l. 9s. 2d. which Edmund the king's son, borrowed from the archbishop to munition the castle of Dover, to be repaid to him at a certain term; grant to the said archbishop that he shall receive the said money from the tenth of the temporalities of his archbishopric, without molesting the said prior.

By R. de Leyburn.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Robert Aguilon, of William Basset from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

Grant, at the instance of John le Fauconer, to the good men of Forthingbrigg of pontage for two years from Holy Trinity, 52 Henry III, for the repair of the bridge of Forthe.

Remission to Robert Maynard, baron of Winchelesse, of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him for things done by occasion of the dissension between the king and the earl of Gloucester after the last retirement of the earl from Wales to the city of London, before Easter, 51 Henry III, until the next exit of the earl from the said city; and acquittance to him, with the assent of the magnates, of all that he did from that time, saving to merchants who did not intermeddle in the said war any actions they have against him to recover their goods according to law and the custom of the Cinque