him on that account, pardoning his trespasses, on condition of his good behaviour, and of his not entering London without the licence of the king and the citizens.

Safe conduct for three years, for Godfrey, burgess of Louvain (Lovianen') coming to the realm to trade.

Request to the tenants of the abbey of Seleby to the abbot and convent with a competent aid, as they suffered in the time of the disturbance enormous torts and damage in their manors and lands.

Although of ancient custom the keeping of void bishoprics and their fruits in time of voidance belongs to the king, yet because of the service from boyhood in the king's household of Master Godfrey Giffard, the chancellor, bishop elect of Worcester, and in consideration of the ruinous state of the houses and buildings of the bishopric through the negligence of past prelates, so that they need great repairs; grant to him that he may convert the fruits thereof to his own uses.

Safe-conduct until St. James for William Serle, coming to the king's court to treat of his peace.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for Ralph de Heyfild.

Presentation of Henry de Cotes, chaplain, to the church of Dreyton Passelewe, in the diocese of Lincoln, void by the resignation of John de Holewell.

Acknowledgment of the delivery in the wardrobe by W. bishop of Bath and Wells, to Peter de Wyntonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Sunday after St. Barnabas the Apostle, 52 Henry III, by the hands of Ralph le Buteleyr and Master Petej? de Brist' of 133/. 6/., 8<2. of the tenth granted by the pope in that bishopric of the second year of the grant.

Licence for the abbot of St. Edmund's, for the relief of himself and his church, to stay beyond seas with a moderate household, where he will until Christmas.

Whereas in compensation for pleas of withernam (de vetilo namio) in the counties of Worcester, Gloucester and Warwick which the king granted to Walter, bishop of Worcester, predecessor of G. bishop elect of Worcester, the latter is bound to acquit the king of 6 marks out of 10 marks which the prioress and nuns of Wrockeshale have been used to receive yearly at the Exchequer, by grant of Henry II, of the appointed alms; the king has assigned to the said nuns the said 6 marks a year at Worcester by the hands of the bishop and his successors.

Mandate to the collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Winchester, notwithstanding the order to deliver the issues thereof into the wardrobe for the expenses of the household, to pay William de Sancto Botulpho, baker, 12l. for bread taken from him to the king's use at London, when the king was last there.
