1268.

Membrane 11—cont.

Because there is danger of the king losing his jewels pawned in France, unless they be quickly redeemed, the king requests B. archbishop of Canterbury, of his courtesy to lend him 100l; and promises to pay this sum out of the first moneys of the tenth granted by the pope in his diocese which he may retain: and he is to deliver the said 100l. to Master Poncius, the queen’s clerk, and William de Gloucestre, citizen of London, whom the king is sending to redeem the jewels.

Simple protection, without clause, for three years, for the abbot and convent of Whitland (or Blanchland, de alba Landa).

To John de Swyncford, taker of the king’s wines throughout England, and all bailiffs and others. Whereas Pernell la Flemeng of Southampton is having a ship brought wherein are contained 55 tuns of wine of her wines which she took in Cornwall in exchange for tin granted to her by the king’s brother Richard, king of Almain; the king, at the instance of his brother, has granted to her that she shall have in the ship the said 55 tuns of wine quit of the king’s emption and prise for this turn, and he commands them not to vex her contrary to this grant.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Robert Waleraund, of Simon de Meriet from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

Acknowledgment of the delivery by the king’s order by W. bishop of Salisbury, to Florentin de Warvena of 200 marks for the tenth of his barony of the second year of the three years of the pope’s grant to the king of a tenth of all ecclesiastical benefices.

July 3. Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for the prior and convent of Farleg.

July 2. Acknowledgment of the delivery by the king’s order by Master Walter de Scamel, treasurer of Salisbury, collector of the said tenth in divers bishoprics within the diocese of Canterbury, to John de Culturis of 70 marks of such tenth for arrears of his fee at the Exchequer.

July 4. Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for William de Helperston.

Promise to the prior and convent of St. Frideswide’s, Oxford, who, at the king’s instance, lately admitted Richard Andreu sometime king’s serjeant, to their house to find him in necessaries for life, that they shall not be charged for others as long as Richard be surviving and taking that exhibition.

Presentation of Master Roger de Croft to the church of Pecham; directed to the bishop of Rochester.

July 5. Signification to the justices appointed in the county of Essex to hear and determine pleas of lands given by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm that the king has granted to Walter de Bibbeswrth...