Jul 16. Whereas lately, for the making of peace between the king and Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, both parties placed themselves under the award and ordinance of the pope as to the amount of the security to be given by the earl that he would not move disturbance in the realm again, and the pope awarded that the earl should place his eldest daughter in the keeping of the Queen Eleanor, as a hostage for three years, or commit his castle of Tonebrig to Henry son of the king of Almain for that period; the king, at the instance of Edward his son, has remitted to the earl the making of either of these securities: the other securities and penalties in the said matter nevertheless to remain in full force. [Fosdera.]

Jul 13. Acknowledgment of the payment in the wardrobe by W. bishop of Salisbury, to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, at Wodestok, on Tuesday after the Translation of St. Thomas the Martyr, 52 Henry III, of 161. 10s. by the hand of Ralph le Botiler, king's clerk, of the tenth of ecclesiastical benefices of the second year of the grant thereof for three years by the pope.

Membrane 10. (Schedule 1.)

Jul 12. Whereas the king, by charter, lately granted in fee to Edward his son the land of Ireland so that it should not be separated from the Crown of England, and the said Edward without his licence has made certain alienations of lands pertaining to the said land which are of the crown, contrary to the tenor of the said feoffment, which the king will not and ought not to endure; he has given power to H. son of the king of Almain to resume such manors and lands, and to take them into the king's hands, and he is not to omit to do this for any charter of feoffment which Edward may have made to anyone contrary to the tenor of the said grant: with mandate to archbishops and others to be of aid to him.

Power to him to make feoffments of the king's lands amongst the Irish or near the Irish or in the march of the Irish; or to let them at farm, or dispose of them in any other way as may seem best.

Writ de intendendo for the said Henry, whom the king is sending to Ireland to hear and determine all pleas, plaints and demands of all persons of the said land, and to do all other things which the king would do himself.
