and heirs of the said Henry having devolved upon the queen by reason of her wardship of Roger Tony, in extension of an assignment of dower made to Joan by brother William de Tarente, then keeper of the queen's lands, who assigned to her a third part of the manor of Elmeleg and a moiety of the manor of Timberleg with the capital messuage, because she is not content with that and has begged further dower out of the stewardship of Toni and of the lands which her husband gave to Joan and Agnes his daughters, in satisfaction whereof the said William by order of the queen, has assigned to her the remaining two parts of the manor of Elmeleg, with the capital messuage for the dower of the stewardship and the other moiety of the manor of Timberlegh for the lands given to the daughters.

Aug. 23. Mandate to the priors of Wendlok and Liministre, collectors of the tenth granted by the pope in the bishopric of Hereford, to pay to Henry de Bradlev and William le Rus, canon of Hereford, late guardians of the bishopric of Hereford, 196 marks, 3s. 4d., to the use of P. bishop of Hereford, for corn and other victuals and herbage taken from the issues of the bishopric by them at Hereford when the king was last there. The king had already commanded the then collectors to pay this, but he now learns that they have not done so.

Confirmation of the restitution made by Roger de Leyburn to Robert son of Walter of his lands in Tingerie, Bradeham and Skirewith, which the king had given to Roger by occasion of the trespasses of the said Robert in the time of the disturbances and Robert is not to be further molested by reason of the said trespasses.

Aug. 24. Whereas by occasion of trespasses which William de Whelton Nottingham a little before his death was said to have done in the time of the late disturbance in the realm, the king afterwards gave to William de Columbers, king's yeoman, some lands late of William de Wymminton, to hold in the form of the award of Kenilworth, and the said yeoman, with the king's licence, has surrendered the same to Roger de Nowers, son of the said William de Whelton, who was enfeoffed of them by his father; the king ratifies this.

Aug. 26. Acknowledgment of the delivery by order of the king by the prior of St. Katharine's, Lincoln, and Master Baiamund, chaplain of the legate, late collectors of the tenth, granted by the pope in the bishopric of Lincoln, to John de Brilaund and John Bardunc of Ypres, king's merchants, of 182l. 6s. 8d. of the said tenth in part payment of 50l. in which the king was bound to them for fur and other necessaries of the wardrobe taken from them by Richard de Ewell, buyer of the wardrobe; and acquittance to them of that sum.
