1268.

Membrane 3—cont.

Acknowledgment of the payment by the king's order by the prior of Merton and Walter de la Croce, late collectors of the tenth granted by the pope in the bishopric of Winchester, to Richard de Ewelle, buyer of the wardrobe, of 20l. of such tenth of the time when they were collectors by the hands of Hugh de Burton, canon of Merton, and John le Botiller at Westminster on Thursday the feast of St. Luke the Evangelist, 52 Henry III, to make the purchases of the wardrobe.

The like, of the payment by R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, there on the same day of 133l. 6s. [Sd.] of the said tenth by the hands of Master John de [CraueF], of the said tenth and of the fine which he made for paying the said tenth by his own hands.

Ratification of the restitution by Alice Mauduit, late the wife of William Maudut, sometime earl of Warwick, and other executors of the earl's testament to Saer de Harecourt of his lands which the king gave to the said William by occasion of the trespasses alleged against the said Saer in the time of the disturbance.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for Richard de Brerton.

Mandate to Master Constantine de Middenhale, archdeacon of Subiry, collector of the tenth granted by the pope in divers dioceses, to pay to the king's merchant, John de Briland 25 l marks, residue of 50l. due for divers merchandise taken from him to the king's use, which sum remains unpaid after several mandates to the collectors in the bishopric of Lincoln to pay the same.

Pardon to Walter Gubaud for the death of Geoffrey Fode; as it appears by inquisition made by John de Kokefeud and Robert de Norton that he killed him in self defence.

Notification to justices, sheriffs and all bailiffs and other that the king has granted to the master and brethren of the order of Sempringham that they may use the liberties which the king granted to them notwithstanding their non-user because of the war.

Acknowledgment of the payment by the king's order by the abbot of Certeseeye and William, parson of the church of Waleton, collectors of the tenth granted by the pope, in the bishopric of Winchester, to Richard de Ewell, buyer of the wardrobe, of 30l. of the said tenth, on Friday the morrow of St. Luke the Evangelist, 52 Henry III, at Westminster.

Vacated because otherwise in the following Roll.

Oct. 20.

Ratification of the restitution with the king's licence by Thomas de Westminster, [Chishull], king's yeoman, to Thomas de la Totere (alias Gotere), of his lands, which the said yeoman claimed to have by the king's gift by occasion of trespasses laid to the charge of the said Thomas in the time of the late disturbance.

Grant for long service to Geoffrey le Squeler, serjeant of Queen Eleanor, of 100s. a year which Geoffrey de Sutton, king's serjeant, lately deceased, used to take from the issues of the manors of