attorneys at the New Temple, London, before the preceptor or brethren of the Temple at the Nativity of the Blessed Mary, 52 Henry III, 200 marks, and at Hilary following 200 marks; and for greater security the said William grants for him and his heirs that the whole of the said land of Assefelt shall remain in the hands of Robert Burnel, clerk, until satisfaction have been made to the said Peter and Otto for the said sum. Further the said William has made a charter of foerfeftment of the same to Peter and Otto which is placed in the keeping of the treasurer of the Temple, London, so that if the said payments are made it shall be restored to him and be of none effect, and if not, it shall be delivered to the said Peter and Otto, and the said Sir Robert Burnel shall then give them seisin of the said manor. And if the said William wills that the wood of Assefeld or part thereof be sold to make the said payment at the said terms, the said Peter and Otto grant that the said William shall have some one appointed on his behalf together with the men of the said Robert to make faithfully the sale of the said wood, so that the money received therefrom be not put to other uses than the said payment. Witnesses, Sir Hugh son of Otto, Sir William Belet, Matthew de Telenham, Robert de Boscu and John de Pelcham, knights, William de Neketon, John de Geddinges, Robert de Neketon, William de Middi', clerk, and others.

Grant by Nicholas de Audele son of Henry de Audele to Robert Burnel of an acre of land in Reveynhal which lies in the field called 'Peycecroft' with the advowson of the said town, which he had of the gift of the prior of Cruceroys, who had it of the gift of William de Roffa; to hold to him, his heirs and assigns, doing to the said prior the service due and accustomed, as contained in the charter of feoffment which the said Nicholas has from the prior Robert; with warranty of the premises against all persons for ever; Witnesses, Sirs Hugh son of Otes, William Charles, Robert de Scaccario, Henry de Engaync, William de Wokendon, knights, John de Kirkeby, clerk, Master Ralph de Frenigham, William de Middilton, Master Hugh de Tornham and others.

Covenant made between Sir William de Criketot son of Sir William de Criketot of the one part and Robert Burnel, clerk, of the other part, whereby the former granted to the latter the manor of Assefeuld sometime of Sir William le Blund, and of the inheritance of the grantor, to hold as freely as Sirs Peter de Chavent and Otto de Graunsun had it of the gift of the king and as the said William ought to hold it if it were in his hand, for five years from the Apostles Philip and James in this year, saving to the said William the sale of wood to be made at his will so that the money arising from such sale be not applied to other uses than the acquittance of a debt wherein he is bound to the said Peter and Otto for his ransom of the said manor. The said Robert may also during the said term take his necessaries from the said wood, to wit, husbote and heybote, and whatever shall be necessary for the maintenance and repair of the said manor. The said Robert has also granted to the said William that at present he may take the recognition and aid of the free tenants and others of the said manor which they may wish to make to him of their free will in part payment of his said ransom. The said William has granted that the said Robert may have without impediment the crop
