Membrane 27—cont.

Commitment to John le Moyne of the office of the escheatry on this side Trent to keep during pleasure; so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Dec. 8. Mandate to all sheriffs on this side Trent to be intendant to him as escheator and to provide juries to make inquisitions or other recognitions when required.

Mandate to the prior of Wymundeham, to deliver the said office with wards, escheats and other things pertaining to it to him.

Whereas in the covenant made between the king and Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, it is contained that Llewelin shall pay the king 3,000 marks at Chester in the abbey of Chester next Christmas, and the said Llewelin has already paid the said sum to Gilbert son of Hugh, the king's envoy, at the said abbey; the king by these presents acquits the said Llewelin of the said sum.

Grant to John Walraund of the prebend of Berton in the church of Hereford, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Hereford; with mandate to the dean of Hereford to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

Mandate to Giles de Avenesbiry, treasurer of Hereford, to do this without delay if the dean defer to do it or will not.

Whereas the king is sending Gilbert son of Hugh to Chester to further some business of the king's there, it is commanded to the justice of Chester and the sheriffs of Salop and Stafford, Warwick and Leicester, Northampton, Buckingham and Bedford to let him have safe conduct through their bailiwicks as he will let them know from the king.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for William de Faur; at the instance of R. de Brywes.

Dec. 9. Notification to the dean of Hereford that the king has granted to Master Theodisius de Camilla, king's clerk, the prebend of Berstoneshom in the church of Hereford, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see; and mandate to him to assign a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter to him.

Mandate to Master Giles de Avenesbiry, treasurer of Hereford, to do this if the dean will not or is dilatory.

Because the king knows that those things which are pleasing to the queen, will be pleasing to Master Walter Scamel, treasurer of Salisbury, collector of the tenth, granted to the king by the pope, divers dioceses; he commands him to let Benedict de Blakehany have at once out of the said tenth 50 marks for the expenses of her household.

Protection without the clause for the following:—
John de Pole; until Michaelmas.
Tedisius de Lavannia; for two years.
Robert de Redenhale; for one year.
