

1269.

Membrane 26—cont.

15 marks and 40*d.* of yearly rent which their predecessors granted to the said nuns, to be taken yearly at Leycester, and which the said earls, by reason of the partition of the lands of the honour of Leycestre, heretofore made between them, were bound to pay to the said nuns; and whereas the said earl of Leicester by his said deed granted that the said nuns should take a moiety of the said rent to wit 7 $\frac{1}{4}$ marks and 20*d.* at Michaelmas at Leycestre by the hands of his bailiff or reeve of Leycestre, and the said earl of Winchester in like manner granted that they should take the other moiety at the same time for his farms of Winchester, to wit, 100*s.* by the hands of the sheriff of Southampton, by whose hands the said earl received his rent of the said county yearly, and 20*d.* of the yearly rent of Henry the butcher (carnificis) and his successors for a messuage which Henry held of the earl in Fleshmangerstrete, and the said earl, by letters patent, likewise inspected by the king, requested the sheriff of Southampton to pay yearly to them the said 100*s.* wherein the king is bound to him for the earldom of Winchester; the king, confirming these deeds, grants that the said 100*s.* and 20*d.* of yearly rent shall be paid to them in this form, and orders the sheriff of Southampton to pay it so that the said nuns be not further wearied by labours and expenses through his default whereby the king may have to take himself grievously to the sheriff. And the barons of the Exchequer are commanded to make him allowance for the said rent of 100*s.* and 20*d.* accordingly.

Jan. 10. Exemption for life of William de Staynesby, king's yeoman, from Westminster. being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff, &c., against his will.

MEMBRANE 25.

Jan. 10. Grant to Tidisius de Camilla, king's clerk, of the deanery of Westminster. Wlverenhampton, void by the death of Giles de Erdyngton, with the collations of prebends and all other appurtenances.

Whereas Master Thomas de Wymundham, the treasurer, and Richard de Ewell, buyer of the wardrobe, at the king's instance, lately bound themselves to John de Brilaund and divers merchants of Douai and Ypres in 980*l.* for cloths, furs, wax, spices, and other necessaries of the wardrobe, taken from them to the king's use by the said Richard and John de Sutton, buyers of the wardrobe; grant that the said merchants be paid out of the first money coming to the Exchequer, notwithstanding any mandate directed to the treasurer and chamberlains.

Ratification of the restitution made with the king's licence by Bernard de Burdele, king's yeoman, to Nigel de Weston of his lands, which the king had given in the form of the award of Kenilworth to the said Bernard by occasion of trespasses laid to his charge in the time of the disturbance in the realm.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for the following:—
The abbot and convent of Tavistok.
Guy de Normanvill and William de Sules.

Whereas Peter de Sabaudia, the king's uncle, before his death bequeathed to the king's consort Queen Eleanor the honour of