a half and the forest of Wyndesor, rendering at the Exchequer 22s. 4d. a year, in the same manner as Godfrey de Lyston had the said keeping and used to render.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.
The like to the same of the castle of Windsor, rendering at the Exchequer 77l. 5s. a year.

Mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him as constable of the castle.

Grant to him of 30l. a year out of the rent aforesaid so long as he has the said keeping, in the same manner as Hugh de Dyve, late constable, used to have.

Membrane 23—cont.

Jan. 29. Remission to William de Wilborham of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him by occasion of trespasses in the late disturbance in the realm charged against him; and pardon to him of the trespasses.

By Robert Waleraunt.

Feb. 4. Acknowledgment that R. bishop of Lincoln, delivered in the Westminster wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Monday after the Purification, 53 Henry III, 70l. 13s. 4d. in full payment of 200 marks whereby he made fine with the king for the tenth of his demesnes of the first year of the three years of the pope's grace of that tenth; and acquittance to him for the same.

Membrane 23 (Schedule).

Membrane 23—cont.

Whereas Edmund the king's son, on the surrender of the king's castle of Gloucestre admitted Philip de Colcvile who with others was in the castle into the king's peace and pardoned to him and his men all trespasses done by them up to the day of such admission, as in the letters patent of the said Edward to Philip, which the king has inspected, is more fully contained; the king commands all justices, sheriffs and other bailiffs not to molest the said Philip or his men.

Licence for Alice late the wife of Hamo de Crevequor who held in chief, for a fine of 10 marks which she will pay to the keepers of the works of Westminster at Easter and Michaelmas next, that she may marry whomsoever she will of the king's fealty.

Grant to Emery de Rupe Cauardi and Maud his wife, going beyond seas, that William Belet and Bertram de Coudrey may make attorneys for them in all pleas moved in the king's courts moved or to be moved.

Inspeximus of letters patent of Edward the king's son, dated at Canterbury, 25 February, 50 Henry III, whereby he acknowledges the receipt of St. from Stephen Blaklok, citizen of Canterbury, which he was bound to pay to James Paulyn of Winchelese, and promises