testimony concerning him, grants to him that, upon the voidance of the church by the confirmation of the said John le Bretun, bishop elect of Hereford, or by his cession or decease, the king out of charity will present him to the said church so that he may be instituted parson thereof.

Grant to Walter de Redmerley of a prebend or portion in the church of Brumyerd, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Hereford; with mandate to B. archbishop of Canterbury, or his official in the bishopric of Hereford to admit him.

Grant to Master Bonettus de Sancto Quintino, collector of the tenth in the bishopric of Rochester, that he may keep out of the said tenth 26l., of arrears of 60l. which the king granted to him for his expenses in the court of Rome when he was last there in the king's service.

Whereas Poncius de la More, king's merchant, has promised and sworn to find the king in good, sound and saleable wine for one year, to be put in the king's cellars for the expenses of the household, on this condition that when the said wines have been discharged and put in the said cellars, they shall be viewed and tested by persons deputed by the king, and such as are good and the king requires kept and the others delivered to the said Poncius to make his profit of; grant that for the wines so selected the king will pay him at the four terms of the year at a reasonable price.

Feb. 20. Presentation of Master Simon de Baleden to the church of Westminster. Bosebiry, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of Hereford; directed to Master Gregory le Bigod, guardian of the spirituality in the said bishopric.

The like of John de Exonia, chaplain, to the church of Stuntingfeud, directed to the bishop of Lincoln.

The like of William de Kényton, chaplain, to the church of All Saints, Dorestre, directed to the bishop of Salisbury.

Grant, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to the Friars Preachers of Shrewsbury that they shall hold their whole place of Shrewsbury with the lane in Irkelande long since stopped which they have of the king's grant, quit of all rent and service to the king.

Grant also to them and their successors, as the king granted to them heretofore by a charter which he has inspected, of whatever they can acquire on the water of Severn by their place. And protection for them and the said place and whatever they acquire on the said water.

Acknowledgment that Bonettus de Sancto Quintino, king's clerk, and his fellow collectors of the tenth granted to the king by the pope in the archbishopric of Canterbury, delivered in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Sunday after St. Valentine, 53 Henry III, 240l. of the said tenth.