in chief, or any fine she may make with the king or Miles for her marriage or the forfeiture pertaining to the king if she marry without their licence.

April 12. \textit{Inspeximus} and acceptance of letters sealed with the seal of Master Westminster. Walter Scamel, treasurer of Salisbury, collector of the tenth granted by the pope in divers dioceses and auditor of the account thereof, certifying that Edward, dean of Wells, and Thomas, precentor of Wells, collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Bath and Wells of the first year of the grant, have rendered account before him, Peter de Wintonia, and Giles de Audenard, deputed by the king to audit the account, of 334l. 11s. 1d. delivered by divers writs, and have reckoned the tenth of divers persons not paying to be 9l. 15s. 11\textsuperscript{1/2}d. whose names have been delivered by the treasurer of Salisbury to the bishop of Bath to levy the same at the mandate of the king; and 10l. 16s. which cannot be levied of some churches of the Hospitallers, Templars, monks of the Cistercian order, the abbot of Bee and a cardinal, who are privileged; and 1 mark of the church of Linton which belongs to Walter de Merton who compounded with the king for his tenth; and 6l. 8s. for the tenth of three churches which belong to Boniface de Foliano, whom the legate acquitted by his letter; and so they are quit of the whole taxation, the sum of which, as well exempt as not exempt, is 362l. 4s. 4\textsuperscript{1/2}d.

April 21. Because the king is informed by inquisition made by Hugh son of Windsor. Otto, keeper of the city of London, and the bailiffs of that city, that Martha Sperling, a fugitive by reason of a merchant stranger having been killed in her house, has been outlawed according to the custom of the city, and that 2 marks of rent which she had in the parish of St. Margaret's in the said city, have been presented as the king's escheat before the justices then in eyre at the Tower of London, and that the king can give them to whom he will without injury to any one; grant thereof to his serjeant John Wylemin [in the margin Gylemin], king's marshal, to hold to him and his heirs.

\textit{Membrane 10.}

April 12. \textit{Inspeximus} and confirmation of letters patent of Edward the king's son, dated at the Tower of London, 9 April, 53 Henry III, granting to the abbot and convent of Meaux and their successors a yearly rent of 10l. of the fee which the said Edward had of the gift of Gamaliel de Oxonia Jew of London, under the names of John son of William de Skyrne and the said Gamaliel, by charter of the said John made to the said Gamaliel which is in the chest of the chirographers of London.

Safe conduct and protection for John Domingi of Toulouse and his merchants, bringing wines and other merchandise to England, so that they can make their profit of the same by sea and land as shall seem expedient quit of all prises and customs save the king's due and ancient prises; and grant that they be not distrained for any debt whereof they are not principal debtors or sureties; for seven years.

April 12. Whereas William, dean of the church of Lincoln, and Master Roger Westminster. de Ravelingham, archdeacon of Huntingdon, proctors of the church and diocese of Lincoln for the tenth, granted to the king by the pope,