1269.

Membrane 19—cont.

Grant to the burgesses and merchants of Rouen for a fine of 20 marks, that for twenty years they shall have this liberty throughout the king’s land and power, to wit that their goods shall not be arrested for any debt whereof they are not sureties or principal debtors, unless the debtors are of their commune and power, having whereof they could satisfy their debts in the whole or in part and the burgesses of Rouen by whom the town is ruled, fail in justice to the men of the king’s power.

The like at the instance of Edmund the king’s son, to his mayor and burgesses of Leycestre.

Simple protection without clause, for three years, at the instance of Edmund the king’s son, for the abbot and convent of Aberbrothok.

To all sheriffs on this side Trent. Whereas the king has committed during pleasure to John le Moyne, escheator on this side Trent, of all the king’s demesnes in their bailiwicks, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer, he charges them not to intermeddle therein but to permit him and his bailiffs to hold the said demesnes, and to restore any of the issues of them taken by them after the said commission to John; provided that the said John do not intermeddle with any of the demesnes previously committed by letters patent at fee farm or to bailiffs of the king for a certain time.

Grant to Emery de Bezilles of the marriage of Amice late the wife of Auker de Frechenvill who held in chief, or any fine or forfeiture for the same.

April 22. Presentation of John de Norwico to the church of Gyseleham, directed to the bishop of Norwich.

Membrane 18.

Acknowledgment that the prior of Okeburn by the king’s order delivered in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Wednesday before SS. Tiburtius and Valerian, 53 Henry III, 66l. 13s. 4d. whereby he made fine with the king for the tenth of his benefices and temporalities.

April 24. Protection for one year for Theobald de Sancto Albino and his men &c.

April 26. Grant for life to Robert the carter of the wardrobe, for long service, of 3d. a day which Peter de Fl . . . , deceased, used to take at the Exchequer of the king’s appointed alms.

Pardon, at the instance of Edmund the king’s son, to Robert son of Eustace de Warton of the king’s suit for the death of Robert Scot of Wherelton, and of any consequent outlawry.

April 24. Pardon to Richard de Bayloill of his flight to the church of Middelton for the death of John le Enveyse of Huntingdon and the king’s suit for that death; as it appears by inquisition, made by Nicholas de Yattingden that in lately crossing the bridge of Harpford