Whereas the king heretofore committed to Robert Aguillon the counties of Surrey and Sussex to keep during pleasure, answering at the Exchequer for the issues, and the said Robert afterwards committed the counties to Roger de Wykes to keep, so that he should answer for the said Robert at the Exchequer; the said Roger has rendered account thereof for the said Robert before the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer for the whole time that Robert had the keeping of the counties and was his sub-sheriff, and retired from the Exchequer quit, as the treasurer and barons have found on search of the rolls thereof and signified to the king more fully by letters.

Whereas the king, at Kenilworth in the siege of the castle, granted to William de Sancta Ermina that he would provide for him and his heirs in 100l. yearly of land out of the first escheats and the said William had nothing afterwards of that grant; grant to him that he shall have wards (wardas et custodias) and the king's escheats of smaller value or others falling in, to that amount, in form aforesaid, and this the king will do for him as soon as it shall seem to be to the use and advantage of the said William.

Whereas the abbot of Westminster, by reason of the fine which G. bishop of Worcester, made with the king for the tenth of his bishopric, made fine with the said bishop for the tenth of his temporalities and spiritualities in that bishopric for 50l., and the king is bound to the abbot in 50l. as well for a pavement which he brought with him from the court of Rome to the king's use, to be put in the church of Westminster before the king's great altar there, and for the service which he did for the king in the siege of the castle of Kenilworth, as for money which he lately paid in the wardrobe; grant that he be quit of the said 50l. of the tenth granted to the king for three years as well on his temporalities as on his spiritualities in the said bishopric.

Mandate to the bishop to acquit the abbot of the said 50l. and the king will cause it to be allowed in his fine.

Pardon, at the instance of John de Houeden, king's clerk, to William Selisaule, detained in the king's prison of York for the death of Adam de Averne; as it appears by inquisition made by John de Oketon that he killed him in self defence.
