Master William de Castro Arraudi in all matters concerning the peace between the king and Louis, king of France.

May 24. Windsor. Acknowledgment that J. [bishop] elect of Hereford has paid in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of the wardrobe, on Saturday after Holy Trinity, at Windsor, 53 Henry III, 50L., in the name of the executors of the will of P. sometime bishop of Hereford, his predecessor, in part payment of the tenth granted to the king by the pope in the said bishopric contingent upon the said defunct so that if in the next account assigned to the said executors within the feast of the Assumption, it happen that the said executors be bound to the king in as great or a greater sum, the said 60L. (sic) and such other things as of right should be allowed to them shall be allowed to them, and they shall answer to the king for the residue; and, if they be not bound to him in so much, the king shall satisfy the said executors of the deficit.

Mandate to Walter Scamel, auditor of the said account, that if, upon audit of the said account, the said 60L. are due to the king, he shall allow the same to the executors, and if they do not owe so much, he shall certify the king of this, in order that the king may satisfy the said bishop elect and that in the meantime they desist from the exaction which they are making (sic) upon the said executors for the said tenth.

May 25. Windsor. Grant, at the instance of Queen Eleanor and of Edward and Edmund the king's sons, to William de Swyneburne, for his services to M. queen of Scotland, the king's daughter, of 30L. yearly of land at good and large extent out of the first escheats that fall in beyond Trent; to hold to him and his heirs.

Grant to the commonalty of the Jews of England, for a fine of 1,000L. that they shall have respite for three years from tallage, unless the king or his sons, according to his vow, go to the Holy Land before then, whereby they may have need to assess such tallage upon them; on condition that they pay 500 marks of the said fine on Tuesday after the octaves of Holy Trinity, and at Midsummer and Michaelmas respectively; and that by reason of that fine the rich be not spared and the poor Jews burdened beyond their powers.

Mandate to Master Constantine de Mildenhale, archdeacon of Sudbury, collector of the tenth granted by the pope in divers dioceses, to pay to H. cardinal bishop of Ostia, 50L. wherein the king is bound to him for arrears of 50 marks yearly, granted to him in augmentation of his annual fee of 100 marks, of the terms of Easter and Michaelmas, 52 Henry III, and Easter last, and 25 marks of the term of Michaelmas next; and not to omit to let the cardinal or his attorney have these sums by all means in London before Michaelmas next out of the first money of the tenth collected in any diocese or city of his bailiwick by pretext of mandate directed to him by the king.

May 26. Windsor. Whereas Master Henry de Gandavo, king's clerk, at the instance of Queen Eleanor and for the need she had to munition the castle of Dover, delivered to her in hand 100 marks for the tenth of his
