whereupon the said clergy made fine with the king by 100 marks for the said arrears and by his order delivered this sum in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, at Westminster, by the hand of Master Robert de Oralaueston and Stephen de Shapene, on Sunday the eve of the Translation of St. Swithun, 53 Henry III; acquittance to them of the said tenth and arrears of the said year and of the said 100 marks.

Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for the abbot and convent of Lesenes.

[July 13.] Whereas Imbert de Monte Ferrandi heretofore by order of the king took of the corn and goods of B. archbishop of Canterbury to the amount of 216l. 16s. for the munition of the castle of Dover, and Hugh le Despenser, then justiciary of England, likewise received to the king's use, of the moneys of the said archbishop arising from the issues of his change of Canterbury and Edmund the king's son likewise took of the goods of the said archbishop 32l. 2s. 6d. for the munition of the said castle; the king for the indemnity of the archbishop, grants that he shall take the said moneys, amounting to 82l. 9s. out of the tenth of his spiritualities and temporalities and the tenth of his benefices of his diocese, in compensation for the said money.

July 8. Pardon to John (alias William) Ughtred for the death of Mabel Westminster. Canun, on testimony before the king by Nicholas de Turri and his fellows, justices in eyre at Catteshull, that he killed her by misadventure; and of any consequent outlawry.

July 14. Grant to Brian de Brampton and his assigns of the wardship of the Westminster. manor of Cruches late of Auker de Fressenevile, tenant in chief, which the king lately gave to him in the form of the award of Kenilworth by occasion of trespasses charged against the said Auker in the time of the late disturbance.

July 15. Writ de intendendo to the prioress and nuns of Godestowe in favour Westminster. of Isolda de Durham, subprioress of that house, whose election as abbess has been confirmed by R. bishop of Lincoln, and to whom the king has restored the temporalities. The like to the tenants of the abbey.

Whereas the pope lately commanded R. bishop of Lincoln, and R. bishop of Norwich, to let the pope and the cardinals have of the tenth of their dioceses granted to the king by the pope, the arrears of the yearly cess of 1,000 marks which he takes of the king, and to deliver the same to Master Senicius his proctor, and the king has assigned for this the tenth of the bishopric of Lincoln, which is sufficient to acquit such arrears, as is said, and ordered the said tenth to be collected without diminution and kept for the use of the pope and cardinals, and has retained the whole tenth of the bishopric of Norwich and of all the clergy of that bishopric to his own use, from which the said bishop and clergy have made fine with him, as is fully contained in other letters patent; grant to the said bishop and clergy that the king will keep them harmless towards the said pope and cardinals.