Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for the following:

Bogo de Clare.

Master Bonetus de Sancto Quintino, dean of Bruges.

July 15. Whereas R. bishop of Norwich, made fine as well for the tenth of Westminster, spiritualities and temporalities as for that of rents, benefices, manors, pensions and all other ecclesiastical profits of the temporalities and spiritualities of the city and diocese of Norwich and of the temporalities and spiritualities as well of the abbot as of the convent of St. Edmunds within that diocese, granted to the king by the pope, in 6,000 marks for the second and third years of the grant, whereof he will pay to Poncius de la More, merchant of the king's wines, on Thursday after St. Mary Magdalene, at Boston fair, 100l. and a fortnight afterwards there 200l. ; and to the king in London, on the octaves of the Assumption following, 1,000l. ; and to the said Poncius on the octaves of St. Edward following, 700l. ; and to the king in the same octaves the residue ; on condition that what has been already paid of the said tenth, or has been otherwise allowed, be allowed to the bishop in the said amount ; and whereas the bishop has constituted himself principal debtor for the payment of the said amount, grant that the executors for the collection of the said tenth deputed or to be deputed by the said bishop, shall cause the same to be levied with the arrears according to the form of the grant and paid over to him in their entirety. And, as regards those who have already covenanted to give a certain sum for the tenth, the king will cause them to pay to the bishop both what is in arrear and what remains to be paid ; what has been paid already to be allowed ; and if any Italians of the court [of Rome] or others show themselves rebellious in payment and the executors of the bishop cannot compel them, the king, at the bishop's request, will cause them to be distrained, cardinals excepted ; and if the tenth cannot even then be levied, or the king have released the tenth to any persons or made composition with them, that amount shall be allowed to the bishop.

Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for Simon, vicar of the church of Thornberg.

July 15. Signification to the bishop of Salisbury of the royal assent to the election of Robert de Burgate, monk of Radinges, to be abbot of that house.

Grant to Geoffrey Gacelin, for a fine of 200 marks paid in hand, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Walter de Wahull, tenant in chief, with knights' fees, advowsons of churches, dowers when they fall in, and all other appurtenances, and the marriage of the heirs.

Mandate to R. bishop of Norwich, to pay without delay to Poncius de la More the above-mentioned 1,000l. on the three days above-mentioned out of his fine of 6,000 marks.

Inspeximus and confirmation of letters patent under the seals of Master Walter Scamel, treasurer of Salisbury, and Peter de Wintonia, auditors of the tenth granted by the pope, in divers dioceses of the province of Canterbury, dated at Westminster 17 July, 53 Henry III, being an acquittance to Nicholas, bishop of Winchester, and all his clergy, for 2,050l. the amount paid after deduction of reasonable...
