Be it known that the king promised to let him have the said marriage and wardship so far as the law would allow and the king is bound to warrant the said marriage and keep him harmless in respect thereof by the king and council.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Clifford, to Roger son of Robert de Lustok for the death of Matthew de Heton.

Inspeximus and confirmation of letters patent under the seals of Master Walter, treasurer of Salisbury, and Peter de Wintonia, auditors of the tenth in divers dioceses in the province of Canterbury, dated July 17, 53 Henry III, being in acquittance to Master Bonetus de Sancto Quintino, collector of the tenth in the diocese of Canterbury, and the clergy of the diocese, for the third year of the grant for 1,152L. 19s. received and paid by him for that year, in which sum are contained 100 marks of the fine made for the arrears of the second year beyond the composition made in the second year by Walter de London, monk of Westminster, and 20L. for the tenth of the churches of Master Henry de Gandavo for the first two years.

Grant to Master Abaiamundus, dean of Lenne, late collector of the said tenth in the bishopric of Lincoln, of 20L. for his expenses in assessing the benefices of that bishopric and collecting the said tenth; which sum is hereby allowed out of the said tenth.

Pardon to Walter de Wygeton of 5 marks by which he made fine for having a charter of a market and fair at his manor of Wygeton, and ½ mark by which he made fine for having a pone, and ½ mark by which he made fine for having a writ ad terminum.

July 20. Because the bailiffs and burgesses of Cantebrig are not only negligent but incompetent in the suppression of the insolences of malefactors and other things harmful to the masters and scholars of the university; the king orders that whenever the bailiffs and burgesses are thus negligent or incompetent, the sheriff of Cantebrig shall come with a sufficient posse of the county and cause such harmful things to be repressed whenever he is so requested on behalf of the university.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the abbey of Radinges in favour of Robert de Burgate, whose election as abbot has been confirmed by W. bishop of Salisbury.

Membrane 8.

Protection, with the clause who with the king's licence is going to parts beyond seas, for two years, for H. bishop of Ely; without that clause 'Et exceptis loquibus etc.'

July 20. Grant to the bailiffs and barons of Winchelsea of murage for five years from St. James the Apostle; for the protection of the town on account of the peril continually threatening it through floods and the violence of the sea.
