July 22. Charter, inspecting and confirming a charter of Thomas son of Thomas de Molton granting to Edmund his son, for his homage and service, his whole land in the towns of Isall and Blencrayk with the manor and all appurtenances as in woods, parks, meadows, feedings and pastures, moors and turbaries, stanks, mills, stews and fisheries, ways and paths, homages and services of free men and services and customs of villeins, and all other liberties and escheats; to hold to him and the heirs of his body by his wedded wife; with remainder to Hubert son of the said Thomas in like manner; and reversion to the said Thomas and his heirs by his wife. Witnesses:—Sir William de Graystok, Alan de Horreton, Hugh de Molton, William de Vallibus, William de Warcheuyk, Alan de Berkwyys, then steward of Thomas de Bello Campo, Ralph le Waleys, Peter de Buethby, and many others.

Witnesses of the confirmation:—J. bishop of Winchester, William de Valencia, the king's brother, Philip Basset, Roger de Leyburn, Robert Walrand, Robert Agnillun, Robert de Briwes, William de Wintreshull, William de Aette, Ralph de Bakepuz, William Belet, Geoffrey de Perey, William de Faukcham, Gilbert son of Hugh, Bartholomew le Bigod, and others.

July 24. Inspeximus and confirmation, of a covenant, made at London, Westminster. St. Margaret the Virgin, 53 Henry III, between Queen Eleanor and Amice, countess of Devon, and whereby the queen, for 1,000L. which she owes for Edmund her son to Amice for a debt which Edmund owed to Amice for the marriage of Avelina, daughter and heir of William de Fortibus, sometime earl of Albermarle, grants to her 1,000L., to be paid at Westminster within three years, to wit, 500 marks yearly of the rents and farms assigned to the queen for life by the king, namely, from the manor of Marleberg, 50L., from the manors of Cocham and Braye and Keninton, 33L. 6s. 8d., from the town of Kyngeston, 29L. 15s. 7d., from the fee farm of Boscham, 42L. 7s. 1d., from the town of Colecetre, 35L. 12s. 2½d., from the town of Andever, 66L., and from the town of Basingstoke, 80L., at Michaelmas and Easter, commencing at Michaelmas next. Witnesses:—Benedict de Blakharn, Emery de Beizil, Bartholomew de Yatingeden, Geoffrey de Fanecurt, knights, Hugh de Penna, John de Sancta Maria, Richard de Hereford, Adam de Strattone, Walter de Wylton.

July 24. Inspeximus and confirmation of a bond made at Westminster, 21 July, Westminster. 53 Henry III, whereby Edmund the king's son acknowledges that he is bound to the queen in 1,000L. of which she acquitted him to Amice, countess of the Isle, to whom he was bound in that amount for her part of the marriage of Avelina, his consort, and grants that she shall receive the same from the farms of the following towns during the following three years, to wit, from Huntingdon 64L., Gloucestre 120L., Hungerford 40 marks, the manor of Bere 26L., the town of Esseburne 60L., the manor of Gunnetherp 40 marks, and the manor of Sherefeld 10L., at Michaelmas and Easter, commencing at Michaelmas next at the New Temple, London.

Pardon to Edmund de Northlejham, clerk, of his outlawry for the death of Thomas de Thurston and for a wound given to William son of Richard, whereof Christiana de Staunton and the said Richard