Whereas the king's son John de Britannia, for the late assignment to him by the king of the earldom of Richemund, remitted to the king 1,200 marks wherein the king of France is bound to the king by reason of a concord made between him and the king touching the land of the Agenais, which the said John was used to receive yearly from the said king by grant of the king; the king granted this yearly sum to Queen Eleanor for her life, by the form of a covenant made between her and Edward the king's son, for the right which she had in the earldom of Richemund, by a bequest thereof made to her in the will of Peter de Sabaudia: the king empowers John de la Linde to make the oath of fealty in the names of the king and queen to the king of France for the said land of the Agenais. [Feadera.]

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to Master Thomas de Wymundham, archdeacon of Lichfield, the treasurer, in 160L which he paid to Luke de Lukes and his fellows, merchants of Lucca, to redeem divers jewels pawned to them, and grant that he shall receive the same by his own hands out of the first money coming from any source to the Exchequer notwithstanding any other mandate to the treasurer and chamberlains of the Exchequer.

Vacated because surrendered.

Simple protection without clause, for two years, for Walter, parson of the church of Tykincote.

Remission, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to Peter Morgan of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him by occasion of the trespasses charged against him in the time of the disturbance in the realm, when he was of the household and company of John de Eyvill; pardon also of the said trespasses and any consequent outlawry; provided that he be of good behaviour and stand to the award of Kenilworth.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for John de Bottele.

Mandate to Fulk Lovel, archdeacon of Colcestre, and Master Godfrey, collector of the tenth in the bishopric of London to pay to Queen Eleanor the 100L granted to her out of the fine which they made with the king for the said tenth, at the Nativity of the Blessed Mary when they are bound to make the said payment, of the said fine. And they are not to omit to do this because of the payment of the money which they are bound to make to the proctors of H. cardinal bishop of Ostia, and Hubert cardinal deacon of St. Eustace, which money they are to pay to those proctors in the last term of the payment of the said fine according to the tenor of the letters which the said cardinals have.

Pardon to John de Heydone for the death of John de Kaderere; as it appears by inquisition made by Guichard de Charrun, sheriff of Northumberland, that he killed him in self-defence.

Power to Queen Eleanor to subject to a bond for seven years the 1,200 marks a year which by the king's grant she ought to have for life by the hand of L. king of France, for the land of the Agenais.

Notification of this to the said L.
