1269.

Nov. 5. Mandate to the king's attorneys, meeting at Cestre at Christmas to receive the money which Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, is bound to pay there, and pay out of the said money to John de Britannia, the king's son, 1,524 marks, arrears of 200 marks a year which he is accustomed to receive at the Exchequer in satisfaction of the value of the honour of Richemund.

Nov. 6. Mandate to Peter Martini and his fellows, merchants of Provence, to pay out of the fine of 1,000L which they have made with the king, to Poncius de la More, king's merchant, 500 marks, in part payment of money which the king owes to him for wines taken from him to the use of the household.

Acknowledgment that Alice de Lascy has delivered by the king's order to the keepers of the works of Westminster during eleven years, to wit, from 43 to 53 Henry III, 3,754L 14s. 8d. of her fine of 362L 3s. 8d. a year which she made with the king for the wardship of the lands and heirs of Edmund de Lascy, who held in chief, and 50L to Henry de Lascy, heir of the said Edmund, for his maintenance, of the king's gift, and 106L to Nicholas de Leukenor, sometime keeper of the wardrobe, on Wednesday the eve of the Apostles Simon and Jude, 51 Henry III, and 110 marks to the prior of Helawe Park of the 10 marks a year which he took of the mills of Castreford; of which money she has the king's letters patent and tallies of the Exchequer of the works of Westminster and a writ of allocate for the said 110 marks, which she is bound to surrender at the Exchequer before receiving allowance and quittance of the said sum.

Nov. 6. Renewal under the present seal, at the instance of Geoffrey Gacelyn, of a charter dated 10 September, 29 Henry III, being a grant to Raymond de Luk' and his heirs of the lands late of Hugh de Rys (sic) in Bedinton. [Calendar of Charter Rolls, i, p. 287.]

Exemplification for life, at the instance of Bertram de Beyvill, king's yeoman, of Ralph Muschet from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff etc., against his will.

Nov. 8. Grant to Guy de Leziniaco of 300 marks from the tenth granted to the king by the pope, in the bishopric of Lincoln, or from the fine which the collectors thereof have made with the king for that tenth, in part payment of the arrears of his fee.

Mandate to the king's attorneys meeting at Cestre this Christmas to receive the money which Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, is bound to pay there, to pay to the said Guy 100L from the said money on the same account.

MEMBRANE 27.

Pardon, at the instance of Eleanor, consort of Edward the king's son, to John de Gay for the death of Robert de Caversfeld; and of any consequent outlawry.

The like pardon to Robert de Gay.

Nov. 10. Mandate to the dean of Lincoln and his fellows, collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Lincoln, to allow to the prior and convent