Whereas the king lately granted that he would provide for Adam de Monte Alto in wardship falling in to the value of 100l. a year, and William de la Laund who held in chief, has now died, whereby that wardship ought to be his by reason of the grant, but the lands do not exceed the value of 25l. a year, as the king has heard; the king, believing that Adam would not receive the said wardship for the grant, has granted it to Peter de Arenges, yeoman of the queen, with the marriage of the heirs; on the understanding that if Adam wishes to have it in part satisfaction of his said grant, then he may have it, and that if Peter can prevail on Adam to let him have it, then Peter shall render therefrom to Master Robert de Huntingfeld, cook of Margaret, queen of Scotland, the king's daughter, 10l. a year during the wardship.

Grant to the king's son John de Britannia, who with his licence is going to the Holy Land, that Peter de Trahan and Robert de Foston, whom he has appointed before the king as his attorneys may make another attorney or other attorneys for him and substitute others for these as they shall deem expedient.

Protection with clause volumus, for five years, for the said John.

Nov. 18. Acknowledgment that the merchants of Florence and Provence Westminster have delivered by order of the king in the wardrobe to Peter de Wyntonia, keeper of that wardrobe, at Westminster, by the hands of Poncius de la More, on Thursday the morrow of St. Edmund the king and martyr 666l. 13s. 4d. in part payment of 1,000l. whereby they made fine with the king for false weights; and acquittance to them in respect of the first named sum.

Simple protection without clause, for two years, for John, dean of Hereford.

Grant to the king's son John de Britannia earl of Richmond, going to the Holy Land, that if he die before his return leaving his heir under age, his executors shall have his lands in England and receive the issues thereof for two years after his death for the execution of his will, without impediment of the king's sheriffs or bailiffs; saving to the king's daughter B. his consort, her dower of the said lands.

Nov. 22. Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Iseult late the wife of Henry de Charingeworth.

Order to all bailiffs etc. to defend the chancellor, masters and scholars of the university of Oxford in all their liberties and privileges; and to give the chancellor and masters counsel and help in keeping the peace there when required by them.

Licence for Robert Aguyllon and his heirs to enclose with a dyke and crenellate the dwelling-place of his manor (mansum manerii sui) of Adington, co. Surrey.

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to Nicholas de Lyuns, Walter Pedargent, Simon le Turber, James le Brun, and their fellows, merchants of Douai, in 984l. 12s. 8d., to wit in 283l. 10s. of the time in...