1269.

Membrane 26—cont.

receives from the king’s predecessors and the king, and for all other demands, which he releases to the king, saving his yearly fee of 20 marks.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Pardon at the instance of Edward the king’s son, to Stephen, prior of Derhurst, of all the issues and profits of the said priory belonging to the king by reason of the voidance of that house, for the time that it has been in the keeping of Peter de Chauvent, guardian thereof; with mandate to the said Peter to deliver to him the issues he has received and to release any distraint he may have made.

Nov. 30.  Protection with clause rogamus for the hospital of lepers of Marlborough. St. Thomas the Martyr without Marleberg and the brethren thereof, begging alms.

Protection with clause volumus, until Whitsunday for Roger de Leyburn going to Gascony, for the business of Edward the king’s son. The like for David de Offinton, Roger de Shirlaund and William Graundyn, his knights, going with him.

Grant to Roger de Leyburn of 1,000l. out of the 3,000l. which Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, is bound to pay to the king at Christmas, 1270, in part payment of 3,094l. 10s. 1d. wherein the king is bound to the said Roger for his expenses in the king’s service, whereof he has rendered account at the Exchequer; and promise that the king will not assign this 1,000l. to another and will allow it to the said Llewelin.

Assignment to him also of 400l. which remain to be paid of the dower of the countess of Leicester in Ireland.

And it is written to Edward the king’s son to let him have all the money arising from the issues of the counties of Salop, Stafford, and Hereford, for one year, in part satisfaction of the said money; and Edward was commanded to write back his will on this.

Membrane 25.

Dec. 4.  Simple protection without clause, for three years, for William de Marlborough. Lincoln.

Dec. 4.  Pardon to Roger de Welwes, detained in the prison of Leicester for the death of Geoffrey de Normanton, of the king’s suit for that death; as it appears by inquisition made by Gilbert de Preston, and his fellows, justices lately in eyre in the county of Leicester, that he killed him in self defence.

Inspeximus and acceptance of letters patent of Edward the king’s son, dated at Herwes, 22 November 54 Henry III, and directed to the justiciary and others of Ireland, being a pardon to Henry Bernard for the death of Henry Choyne.

Dec. 4.  Grant, for the relief of the state of the priory of the church of Marlborough. St. Margaret without Marlborough, to the prior and canons dwelling there of 40 marks out of the first fines and amercements from pleas and plaints now before the king.