Dec. 28. Mandate to Roger de Clifford to send to the king the record and process of the plea that was before him between Benedict son of Abraham, Jew of Winchester, and Valentine, prior of St. Swithun's, Winchester, touching divers trespasses done to him by the said prior.

[The record and process.] (Schedule.)

Sept. 24. Appointment of the said Roger, in the room of Robert Waleraund who is engaged on the king's affairs, to enquire by jury of the county of Southampton touching certain depredations and trespasses committed by certain citizens of Winchester and others upon the said Benedict and his wife, and to do justice in the matter.

The said Benedict appeared before the said Roger on Tuesday the morrow of Martinmas, 54 Henry III, against the said Valentine who was summoned for himself and his convent to answer the said Benedict touching certain trespasses committed against the said Benedict by him and the convent.

The said prior came and craved licence to make a concord and had it.

And the concord is such that the prior, for himself and his convent acknowledged that he was bound to the said Benedict in 100L to be paid in instalments of 25L at Christmas, the first Sunday in Lent, Easter and Michaelmas following; and, if he failed to pay, the sheriff should levy on his lands and goods.

And the said Benedict remitted to the prior all actions which he had against him and the convent by reason of the said trespasses.
