1270.

Membrane 22.

Feb. 9. Grant to the men of Apethorp, for a fine of 20 marks which they will pay in the wardrobe on Sunday in Mid Lent, of their town for ten years from Saturday after the Purification, 54 Henry III, rendering at the Exchequer the same farm which they have been accustomed to render and 30s. a year besides, of increment, so that they make no waste, sale, destruction or alienation of the houses, gardens, lands or other things belonging to the said town; and grant that no bailiff intermeddle therein during the said term.

The men of Clyve have like letters of the manor and town of Clyve for ten years, rendering the farm which they have been accustomed to render and 40s. for increment.

The men of Brikestok have like letters, for a fine of 20 marks, of the manor and town of Brikestok rendering as above and 30s. for increment.

Pardon, at the instance of John de Burgo the elder, to William son of Herbert le Lord of Stowe Bydun for the death of Richard de Uphull.

The like, at the instance of Edmund the king’s son, to Nicholas son of Walter le Porter for the death of William Barre and of any consequent outlawry.

Feb. 11. Whereas the king, out of compassion for the state of Geoffrey Luterel, now deceased, who was afflicted with such an infirmity as to be insufficient for the rule of himself and his lands, ordered for him that Alexander Luterel, his brother, should have the care of his body and William de Grey whose daughter Geoffrey married should have the keeping of his boys, until his death; the said Alexander has now come to the king and announced the death of the said Geoffrey, and delivered by order of the king the wardship of the said lands to Robert de Tybetot, to whom the king has granted it, and the king by these presents acquits him of the keeping of the lands and body during the time he had it as above.

Simple protection in perpetuity for the abbot and convent of Blanchland.

Feb. 12. Ordinance for the form of the writing of the king’s rolls of the Westminster Exchequer. [Feodera.]

Grant to Robert de Tybetot, in exchange for 30l. yearly of land which the king and Edward his son gave to him and his heirs in the town of Bristol, and which he has surrendered to the use of the said Edward, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Geoffrey Luterel who held in chief; with the marriage of the heirs.

Assignment to Poncius de la More, merchant of the king’s wines, of 500l. to be paid to him at the New Temple, London, within the octaves of Easter out of the tenth in the bishopric of Lincoln as well as out of the fine made with the king for the same; with mandate to Master William de Lexindon, dean of Lincoln, collector thereof, to cause it to be delivered to him.