Membrane 20—cont.

Whereas the king lately granted to William de Wintreshull all the debts wherein Arnold de Berkeleye, deceased, was bound at the Exchequer, and afterwards committed to him the houses of the said Arnold in the City of London to keep at will; grant to him that he may keep the said houses, saving the right of anyone, until the said debts be levied according to law and the custom of the Exchequer.

Protection with clause volumus, until Michaelmas, for Baldwin de Caukewell, who with the king’s licence has undertaken to make a pilgrimage to Santiago.

Feb. 27. Pardon to John de Kingston for the death of Stephen Stance; Westminster, as it appears by inquisition made by Adam de Greynvill that he killed him in self defence.

Pardon, at the instance of William de Wintreshull, to Richard Selde for the death of William le Taverner of Marleberge, and of any consequent outlawry.

Exemption for life, at the instance of John de Sutton, sacristan of Westminster, of Ralph de Septem Foitis from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

The like exemption of Walter de Beche.

The like of Jordan de Insula, king’s yeoman.

Pardon, at the instance of Henry de la More, to Henry de Caldecote for the death of Adam Aylard and of any consequent outlawry; as it appears by inquisition made by Robert de Brywes that he was not guilty thereof.

Simple protection without clause, for three years, for the abbot and convent of Bylegh.

Pardon at the instance of John le Faukener, king’s clerk, to William del Hangre for the death of Nicholas Not, and of any consequent outlawry.

Simple protection for one year for Menaud Goteryn and Bertram, his brother.

March 2. Grant to William de Valencia, the king’s brother, going to Ireland, Westminster, that Robert Aguillun and Ellis de Rabeyn, to whom he has given power before the king to make attorneys in his place, may make such attorneys until St. Peter’s Chains.

Protection until Michaelmas for Ralph de Waldeshef, going to Santiago.
