1270.

Membrane 13—cont.

king’s hands and the money levied on their goods, and besides this found William de Aete as a pledge for the said money to be levied on his lands and goods if not paid.

Simple protection without clause, for two years, for Peter de la Torte, citizen of Dax.

Grant to John Baudefard, king’s serjeant, in consideration of his frequent expenses in the king’s service, of 20l. of the debts and goods late of John Samps’ belonging to the king by reason of a felony for which he was hanged; on condition that if that sum cannot be levied in full, the king will cause him to have the residue elsewhere.

June 5. Grant to John Sinagun, king’s yeoman, as a further grace in addition to 6d. a day which Ingelard Sinagun, his father, deceased, used to receive for life by the hands of the bailiff of Cokham and Braye, lately granted to him, of the keeping of the forest of Windsor under the constable of the castle of Windsor, with all things belonging to the said keeping, and 7½d. a day which he used to receive from the wardrobe for his wages; so that he shall now take 13½d. a day by the hands of the bailiff of the said manors for the maintenance of himself and for keeping the said forest, and in future take no wages from the king.

June 3. Whereas Peter de Sabaudia, the king’s uncle, lately deceased, bequeathed to the queen before his death the honour of Richmond, as he had power to do by charter of the king, and the king, after his death, having need of the said honour to the use of his son John de Britannia, surrendered it with the assent of the queen, to the said John, and in exchange for it granted to her for life 800 marks yearly from the following manors and farms, to wit, from:

- the manor of Marleberge, 50l.
- the farm of Agnes de Rudon, 7l. 10s.
- the farm of Winterburn, 12l. 9d.
- the farm of Hedindon, 18l.
- the issues of Haneberg, 27l.
- the issues of Blokesham, 32l.
- the king’s mills of Oxford, 25l.
- the king’s mead of Oxford, 13l. 6s. 8d.
- the township of Langele, 7l.
- Cocham and Braye and Kenynton, 41l. 13s. 10d.
- the farm of Wycumbe, 18l.
- the farm of Kingeston with the purprestures (cum extensis), 29fl. 16s. 7d.
- the farm of Boseham, 43fl. 4s. 6d.
- Hadeleheee, 13l. 6s. 8d.
- the farm of Colecestre, 41l. 8s.
- the farm of Aunddevre, 74l.
- the farm of Basingestok, 80l.

And whereas the queen cannot take the sum of 800 marks yearly in full from these, the king, willing that she receive this sum in places where she can receive the said money clearly, has granted that she shall receive the said sum from the following manors and farms:

- of the issues of the manor of Marleberge, 50l.