from which manors and farms there have been accustomed to be rendered at the Exchequer 800 marks, 13s. 4d. yearly, as the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer have testified before the king. Grant also that the queen hold the said manors which are not at fee farm in demesne and take the said farms by her own hands or the hands of her bailiffs, for life, on condition that the farms of Rudon, Winterburn, Hedendon, Braye, Kenynton, Wycumbe, Boseham, and Hadleye, previously assigned to her, be taken into the king's hands, and be paid at the Exchequer as before.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to let her have the issues and farms of the said manors, so that she may let them to farm and approve the manors, as she thinks fit, and to acquit the said farmers and men of the said farms and issues and to cause this to be enrolled. And it is commanded to the farmers and tenants of the said manors to be intendant to her.

Whereas the house of Hecham is burdened with debt and by reason of the many people staying in the house by reason of contentions which have arisen between the prioress and the convent, its goods are consumed; the king has taken it into his hands and committed the keeping of it to John de Cobeham, during pleasure.

Writ de intendendo to the prioress and convent.
Mandate to Ralph de Freningham to deliver the priory to him.

Grant to Robert de Shorteford, clerk of the works of the castle of Windsor, of 2d. a day for his stipend by the hands of the constable of that castle out of the issues of the manors of Cokham and Braye, so long as he behaves well in his said office, as Robert his father, sometime clerk of the said works, and other clerks of the said works, have been accustomed to take in the said office.

Vacated because surrendered and cancelled.

Grant, at the instance of Eleanor, consort of Edward the king's son, and for the long service to her of John le Espanoyl, to the said John of the ransom of 100s. yearly of land pertaining to the king of the lands of William de Ses' in the county of Lincoln, who was against the king in the time of the disturbance, to hold for five years according to the award of Kenilworth.

Whereas Robert Charles who is going to the Holy Land with Edward the king's son has sold the whole of his land for the accomplishment of his pilgrimage; the king moved by pity grants, at the instance of
