Acknowledgment that the burgesses of Ludelawe have delivered at the New Temple, London, to Randolf de Brimmesgrave, treasurer of the New Temple, 20l. whereby they made fine for the twentieth contingent upon them for their goods.

July 10. Testification that Jolland de Molendinis lost part of his ear by the savageness and bite of a horse which he was handling carelessly and not through any disgrace.

Licence for John de Vesey, who is going to the Holy Land with Edward the king's son, to lease his manor of Winteringham which he holds in chief, for four years from Michaelmas.

July 10. Pardon, at the instance of Reynold de Grey, to Stephen Engayn for the death of Owain son of Owain and of any consequent outlawry; as it appears by inquisition made by the sheriff of Hereford that he killed him in self defence.

Pardon, at the instance of William Burd to William Prik for the death of William de Wode; as it appears by inquisition made by William de Sancto Audomaro that he killed him in self defence.

Grant to the sub-prior and convent of St. Andrew's, Northampton, for a fine of 20 marks which they have paid in the wardrobe of the keeping of the said priory in the instant voidance thereof, as in tallages of their men, rents and all other things belonging to the priory; saving knights' fees, advowsons of churches, wards and escheats.

Commission to the treasurers of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem, Clerkenewell, and of the knighthood of the New Temple, London, and Giles de Audenardo, clerk to receive the money arising from the twentieth in the realm and lay it up in the treasury of the New Temple, and keep it until further order, and to make acquittances to those who have paid the said money to them, as the king has commanded them by word of mouth.

July 11. Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for Richard de Westminster. Wy, clerk.

Inceptio and confirmation of letters patent under the seals of Master Walter Scamel, treasurer of Salisbury, and Peter de Wintonia, appointed by the king and Ottobono, cardinal deacon of St. Adrian's, to audit the account of the tenth granted to the king by the pope in divers dioceses of the province of Canterbury, dated at Westminster, 17 July, 53 Henry III, notifying that Nicholas, bishop of Winchester, who made fine with the king for the whole tenth of the three years of the grant for the diocese of Winchester, and Gilbert, prior of Merton, and Walter de Brich, called 'de la Croce,' collectors of the said tenth, rendered account before them of 3,000l. according to the fine aforesaid and on audit of the account it was found that the money had been paid in full and the account was quit.

July 13. Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for Bartholomew Weston. son of Henry de Risseden.