Membrane 10—cont.

July 12. Inspectimus and confirmation of letters patent of Edward the king's son, dated at Westminster 12 July, 54 Henry III, granting to Robert de Tybetot, who is going with him to the Holy Land that if he die before his return, his executors or other assigns shall have the power of providing for the keeping and marriage of his heirs and the keeping of his lands without impediment or challenge.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for the abbot of Torre.

July 14. Pardon, at the instance of Robert de Ufford, to Gilbert Peche, of Westminster. 50l. wherein he was bound to Samuel le Blunt, sometime Jew of London, which have come into the king's hand through the death of the said Samuel.

Licence for Eustace de Balliol, going to the Holy Land with Edward the king's son, to lease his manors of Levyngton, Skelton, Gamelesby, Glasonby, and Quorlyngton, which are held in chief, for four years from Michaelmas.

July 15. Renewal under the present seal of letters patent to the men of Westminster. Gernere, dated at Westminster, 23 October, 33 Henry III, granting that they may fish between Michaelmas and Easter whenever they will and that, after Easter, they may sell fish fresh and salt thrice a week in the lands of the king's power.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for Ralph de Barsale.

Confirmation of a lease for five years made by William de Bello Campo, earl of Warwick, to Roger de Mortuo Mari, the abbot of Evesham, and Bartholomew de Suleye, executors of the will of William de Bello Campo, his father, of his whole rent in Beleye and Jerdeleye.

Pardon, at the instance of William de Sancta Ermina, to Roger de Bachewoldinden for the death of William Regnier.

Confirmation of a lease for three years made by the above earl of Warwick to Humphrey [alias Osbert] de Bereford, of the whole manor of Gretham and Cotesmor, with all appurtenances except the advowson of the church of Cotesmor.

July 15. Licence for William de Detling, who is going to the Holy Land with Edward the king's son, to lease his manor of Rowele which he holds in chief for four years from St. Peter's Chains.

Simple protection, without clause, for two years, for John Denys, merchant.

July 16. Grant to Agnes de Vescy of the ransom of 26s. 1¼d. of rent late of Robert son of Nicholas in Stapelford, belonging to the king according to the form of the award of Kenilworth, by occasion of trespasses charged against Robert in the time of the late disturbance in the realm.