receivers of the twentieth granted to the king in the realm, 100l. whereby the commonalty of the town of Newcastle upon Tyne made fine for their proportion of the said twentieth, on the condition that the commonalty pay to him 100l. for the said sum paid to the king in the county of Northumberland where and when he will; the king acquits the said commonalty on condition that they satisfy the said Richard of the said sum in the county as above.

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to Henry le Waleys, citizen of London, in 62l. 6s. part of 213l. 5s. 4d. wherein he was bound to him for wines taken to the use of Queen Eleanor in the time when she was with the king at Kenilworth and Windesor, which the king ordered to be paid to him out of the tenth in the bishopric of Ely, and of which he received 150l. 19s. 4d. only; with promise to pay him the said 62l. 6s. at the Exchequer on the quinzaine of Michaelmas.

July 20. Confirmation of the commitment by brother Miles of La Charité Westminster, of the priory of St. Andrew, Northampton, to John, prior of Bermundseye, to govern, as in his letters to the king is more fully contained, and mandate to the subprior and convent of St. Andrew's to be intendant to the said brother John.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum made by Roger de Clifford, justice of the forest on this side Trent, for Henry de Engayne to enclose 10 acres of his arable land, by the perch of the forest, in Blathewyk, which are within the metes of the forest of Clyve, with a small dyke and low hedge so that the king's deer can get in and out; provided that he answer for those things which pertain to the regard.

Because the king has learned by inquisition made by Peter de Chaumpvent and Walter de Helyun that the abbots of Flexeleye from the time of King John has held a moiety of a weir in the water of Severn, called Hynewere, of the gift of Henry de Myners, sometime lord of that moiety, and that for the last thirty years and more that weir has been broken by inundation and carried away, with only a part of the timber remaining in the said water and thus through dissension between the abbot of Flexeleye and the abbot of Persore, lord of the other moiety, as to the apportionment of the expenses of the repair thereof, the said weir has remained unrepaired; and whereas three years ago, the said abbots would have repaired the said weir, but Matthias Bezill, then constable of the castle of Gloucester, did not permit this, because in his time he never saw a weir there, and if it were repaired this would be to the damage and nuisance of the king's weirs near by to the value of 2s. a year; he grants to the abbot of Flexeleye that he may have his moiety again, and repair it at his will, and that he and his successors shall have it in perpetuity, rendering 12d. yearly at the Exchequer.

The abbot of Persore has a like charter, touching the other moiety of the weir, with this difference that the abbots of Persore had one moiety of time beyond the memory of man by gift of Osbert son of Poncius, sometime lord thereof.

Mandate to the sheriff of Gloucester to permit the said abbots to repair and hold the weirs.
