Acceptance of the commitment by the king’s brother R. king of Almain, and other attorneys of Edward the king’s son, to which son the king for his own and his said son’s security committed certain castles and counties to keep in the form provided between them to Henry Malemayns of the county of Kent to keep in form aforesaid, answering for the issues at the Exchequer; with mandate to all persons of the county to be intendant to him as sheriff of the county.

Mandate to Stephen de Penecester to deliver the county with the rolls, writs and other things relating to the county to the said Henry.

Licence for life for J. bishop of Hereford, to hunt with his own dogs the hare, the fox, the badger and the cat throughout the forests in the counties of Hereford, Gloucester, Berks and Southampton.

John de Romenhal and Peter de Rodmersham, monks of Faversham, coming to the king with letters patent of their chapter, announcing the death of John de Horeapeldore, their abbot, have licence to elect.

Jan. 20. Notification to the collectors of the twentieth in the county of Essex and the sheriff of that county, that the prior of Mareseye has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to him and his villeins, with mandate to them not to levy the same from their goods; and if they have taken anything on this account, to make restitution.

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to Fulk Lovel, king’s clerk, archdeacon of Colecestre, guardian of the bishopric of London, in 70 marks for corn bought of him to the king’s use for the corn of the bishopric, which the king will cause to be paid to him out of the first moneys brought into the Exchequer after Easter; and he has commanded the treasurer and chamberlains not to omit to pay this for any mandate of the king directed or to be directed to them.

Assignment to Stephen de Penecestre, constable of the castle of Dover, for the keeping of that castle of the 500 marks a year which Henry Malemeyns, sheriff of Kent, is bound to pay for the county of Kent and the hundred of Middleton in his keeping; with mandate to the said Henry to let him have this yearly for the keeping of the castle.

Exemption for life of Walter le Escot of Welteden from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

Acquittance to the prior and convent of Bradenestok of 100s., delivered by them to Giles de Audenardo and the other receivers of the twentieth at the New Temple, London, on 20 January in the fifty-fifth year, in part payment of 10l. whereby they made fine for the twentieth contingent upon them and their villeins.

Release, with the assent of Edward the king’s son, to the prior and brethren of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England of the twentieth granted by the commonalty (communam) of England to