Michaelmas next; grant to the said bailiffs that, this payment made, they shall be quit of all other payments or quittances to be made for the king up to that date, provided that in the meantime they have his wines there carried at his command as they have been accustomed to do.

Protection with clause volumus, until a year after Easter next, for G. bishop of Worcester, going to Santiago with the king's licence.

Mandate to the prior of Wenlock and Walter Achard, king's serjeant at arms, to deliver to the king's merchant Poncius de Mora, buyer of the king's wines, in part payment of debts wherein the king is bound to him, the 500 marks received by them to the king's use at Cestre at Christmas last from Lewellin son of Griffin, prince of Wales.

Acquittance, for a fine made with the king of which they have satisfied him and Edward his son, to the abbot and convent of St. Augustine's, Canterbury, of the twentieth incident to them and their villeins.

Simple protection without clause, for three years, for Thomas de Mere.

Jan. 26. Acquittance to the collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Hereford for 20L. of that tenth delivered in the wardrobe to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Monday the morrow of St. Paul, 55 Henry III, by the hands of Reynold, clerk of the prior of Lyministre.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Lamfranc Deututus, citizen and merchant of Genoa.

Jan. 26. Exemption for life, at the instance of the king's daughter Margaret, queen of Scotland, of Roger de Botycombe from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

Jan. 27. Presentation of Thidisius de Camilla to the church of Wistanstowe, in the king's gift by reason of the knights' fees and advowsons of churches late of Henry de Hastinges, who held in chief, being in the king's hands; directed to R. bishop of Lincoln.

Grant to the mayor, bailiffs and other citizens and good men of Lincoln to whom the king in his forty-second year granted murage for seven years from the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, and in his fifty-second year renewed the grant for three years from Ash Wednesday in that year, that they shall continue to take the said custom for another three years from next Ash Wednesday.

Jan. 28. Grant to Edmund the king's son, who is going to the Holy Land, in aid of that land, and is charged with many debts, in view of the peril to his soul if his debts, which can only be paid out of the issues of his lands, should remain [unpaid], especially as the greater part of his lands should devolve upon the king if he should die without...