1271.

Membrane 19—cont.

causd to be arrested amongst other debts and goods in the city of Winchester of those of Flanders by occasion of the contention that is between the king and those of the said parts, in part payment of a sum of money in which the queen is bound to Deutautus.

March 3. Quittance to the prior of Hermodesworth, who has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to him and his villeins, and his said villeins of such twentieth.

March 4. Protection and safe conduct, until the first Sunday in the Passion Westminster. of the Lord, for John de Husya, dean of St. Peter's, Lille (Insulen'), Gilbert de Cur' of Ghent, Walter Pe de Argent, the younger, of Douai and John de Lo of Ypres, envoys of M. countess of Flanders, whom she has sent to the king to treat with the king of the contentions with the said countess, in coming to him with their horses and harness, staying in England and returning.

March 5. Quittance to the abbess of Caen, because she has satisfied the king Westminster. and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to her and her villeins, and her said villeins of such twentieth.

March 6. Signification to all persons of the royal assent to the election of Westminster. Master Robert de Wichehampton, dean of Salisbury, to be bishop of that place.

Quittance to the abbot of Radinge of the twentieth contingent upon him and his villeins, because he has satisfied the king Edward his son of the said twentieth.

Mandate to the mayor, bailiffs and citizens of York to deliver to James de Lukes, king's merchant appointed to receive the arrears of the twentieth in the county of York, or his attorney bearer of these letters, the arrears of the fine which they made for such twentieth.
The like to the collectors and sheriffs of the county of York, to deliver the arrears of the said twentieth.
The like to the bailiffs and good men of Scardeburg, to deliver the arrears of the fine which they made for the twentieth.

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to Richard, king of the Romans, his brother, in 2,306 marks to be paid at the Exchequer three weeks after Easter next; and promises that the king will pay no money to any of his debts until the said Richard or his executors be paid.

March 10. Safe conduct, until Whitsunday, for the envoys of M. countess of Westminster. Flanders, for whom the king has appointed a day before him a month after Easter to treat of the contentions between him and the countess, and for their households with their horses, harness and other things.

Whereas Maud Longespe, the king's baroness, lately signified to the king by letter that John Giffard of Brimmesfeld abducted her at her manor of Kaneford and took her against her will to his castle of Brimmesfeld and detained her there, on account of which the king has several times commanded the said John to come to his court to purge his innocence or to cause her to be delivered without delay, and the said John came