Simple protection without clause, for three years, of Hugh de Burgundia, parson of the church of Great Chert.

Quittance to the good men of Colecestre, because they have satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth contingent upon them, of the said twentieth.

March 13. Acknowledgment of the receipt from Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, by the hand of Poncius de la More, king's merchant, of 500 marks, arrears of 3,000 marks which he ought to have paid at Christmas last according to the form of the peace.

Simple protection without clause, for five years, for the brethren of the hospital of St. John without Stanhistratford.

Because it has been testified before the king by Master William de Clifford, late escheator on this side Trent, that the homage and service of John de Turbervill for the manor of Cumbe, which was held of Walter, sometime earl Marshal, were assigned to Hugh de Mortuo Mari and Agatha his wife as her purparty of the inheritance of the said earl; the king commands the said John to do his homage and service thereof to the said Hugh and Agatha and to be intendant to them as his lord.

Grant for life to Master John de Sancto Dyonisio, king's clerk, of the keeping of the House of Converts in the suburb of London and of the converts, to have as Adam de Cestreton, king's clerk, had it when he lived.

Safe conduct, until the Purification, for all merchants of Brabant coming with silver in plates to trade therewith at the change of London.

Respite for William son of Andrew de Sumercote from making himself a knight until three years after Easter.

Commitment to Master John de Sancto Dionisio as above; so that he may inhabit the houses, wherein Adam de Cestreton and Master Thomas de la Leye, king's clerk, lately dwelt, at his will; with mandate to the converts to be intendant to him.

Simple protection without clause, until a year after Easter, for Oger de Candavo, yeoman of John de Warenna, earl of Surrey.

The like, for one year, for the prior and convent of Newenham.

Safe conduct for James Troysin, citizen and merchant of London, trading throughout the realm.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Ralph son of Helewise le Parker of Hol.

Whereas Laurence de Chiselhampton by charter granted to the abbot and convent of Dorcestre a messuage and two carucates of