Membrane 19—cont.

land in Chiselhampton in perpetuity, and the abbot and convent gave the same to Geoffrey de Leukenore and his heirs for ever; and the said Laurence is bound to Jews in divers debts which can be levied on his other lands; grant that no distraint shall be made on the same for the said debts to the use of the king and his heirs or of the said Jews.

March 16. Exemption for life of Richard de Kreppinges from being put on Westminster assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will.

Exemption of William de Kirketon, engaged in business of William de Valencia the king's brother in divers counties, from suits of counties, hundreds and wapentakes, until three years after Easter.

Licence until Whitsuntide, at the instance of Henry de Lacy, for Luke de Luka and Reiner his fellow to sell in the instant fair of Stamford and elsewhere certain cloths of Provence which they brought to the use of the said Henry, and which he has no need of at present, although they are not of the right length and breadth according to the assize of the realm.

Quittance to the prior of St. Andrew's, Rochester, and his villeins, because the prior has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to them, of the said twentieth. And because he has in like manner satisfied the king for his churches and tithes, nothing is to be exacted from him on that account.

Grant to the prior and convent of Christchurch, Canterbury, of the stone, timber, lead and other things of their house adjoining the church of St. Mary le Bow in the street of Westchepe, which became the king's deodand, through the crushing of men and women by the fall of that church and house; with mandate to the mayor and sheriffs of London, who have taken them into the king's hands, to restore them to the prior and convent.

Safe conduct and protection, for two years, for Peter Bony, Queen Eleanor's merchant, and his merchants and servants, trading in the realm; so that his merchandise shall not be arrested by occasion of the goods of the merchants of Flanders during the contention between the king and the countess of Flanders.

Pardon, at the instance of William de Steynesby, king's yeoman, to Richard son of John de Pentelowe for the death of Henry atte Sture of Pentelowe, and of any consequent outlawry.

Presentation of Thidisius de Camilla to the church of Terringes, and to the church of Faling, void by the death of Simon, late rector of the same, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to the guardian of the spirituality of the bishopric of Cycestre.

March 18. Licence for Jacob son of Master Mosseus, Jew of Oxford, to sell, Westminster, in the form of the late provision, to Adam de Stretton, king's clerk, that debt wherein John Brond is bound to the said Jew by deed.
