April 16. Licence for him to import cloths though they do not contain the right measure according to the ancient assize; until St. Peter's Chains.

Licence, at the instance of Queen Eleanor and of W. archbishop of York, for Nicholas de Lynns, their merchant, to import cloths and trade with them; until St. Peter's Chains.

April 17. Simple protection without clause, for two years, for the Carmelite Friars, Nottingham.

Licence, at the instance of Robert Burnell, clerk, and also in consideration of divers courtesies of Alard Lupi, merchant of Lille (de Insula) to Edward the king's son and the king, for the said Alard to import 120 cloths to trade with, so that he shall not be hindered because they are not of the due length and breadth according to the assize, and safe conduct for him and his men in bringing the same over; until St. Peter's Chains.