his will.

April 21. Whereas the king lately granted for life to Robert de Rogate, his Westminster. serjeant, the stewardship of the hall of the priory of Christchurch, Canterbury, and commanded the prior and convent to admit him; and they sent Martin, their chamberlain to the king, who brought back answer that they would willingly admit the said Robert, if they could be certified of the death of Gerard de Castell, whom B. archbishop of Canterbury collated to the said keeping for life; it was at length covenanted between the prior and convent and the said Robert, that Robert should have full seisin of the stewardship and receive the profits thereof until Gerard, if he were alive, should come before the king and the king restore the stewardship to him, on condition nevertheless that, if the king thought fit to restore it to Gerard, Robert should be answerable to Gerard for the profits taken in the meantime, or make satisfaction to Gerard, on behalf of the prior and convent, for the pension which they are bound to give to Gerard for the said stewardship.

Licence, notwithstanding the late provision that no Jew may sell a debt due by any Christian, without licence, for Hagn son of Master Moses, Jew of London, and Master Elias, Benedict and Jacob, his sons, and Benedict son of Jacob, to sell to Queen Eleanor all the debts wherein Roger Bertram was bound to them.

April 22. Simple protection until Michaelmas for John the chaplain, and Westminster. Master Vincent, clerks of Alice de Clare, consort of Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, and Robert Lammas, her serjeant.

Presentation of Geoffrey Noreman to the church of Mildele, void by the resignation of Richard de Sar and in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to Master Roger de Mortuo Mari, archdeacon of Canterbury.

Grant for life to Master Walter de Dunelm, the king’s painter, of the 2d. a day which Pernell de Kinton had for life of the king’s appointed alms.

April 24. Whereas Robert de Oulton, whose lands or the ransom pertaining Westminster. to the king thereof according to the award of Kenilworth the king gave to Edmund de Bovill, king’s yeoman, has made satisfaction of the ransom to the said Edmund; the king ratifies this and grants
