any pardon, quittance or alienation of the debts of the Jewry; and that he shall not receive anything from the Jewry except the said 2,000 marks and the penalty if it be incurred.

June 25. Safe conduct until the quinzaine of Midsummer for the envoys of Westminster, the countess of Flanders, for whom the king has fixed a day before him on the octaves of the Holy Trinity; and for their households and goods.

Quittance to the abbot and convent of Seleby, for 10s. which they will pay to the receivers of the twentieth at the New Temple, London, to the use of Edward the king's son, at Michaelmas next, of the said twentieth incident to them and their villeins.

June 28. Grant to Richard, king of Almain, of the lands which Joan late Westminster, the wife of Henry de Hastynges who held in chief, held in dower of the inheritance of the said Henry, with knights' fees, advowsons of churches and other things, on condition that if these lands with the other two parts of the lands of the said Henry, which the king gave to his said brother before and other wardships committed to him exceed the value of 1,000l. a year the surplus shall remain to the king and if they do not reach that sum the king will make satisfaction to him of the deficiency.

Acknowledgment that the prior and convent of Bradenestok delivered to Giles de Audenardo and his fellows, receivers of the twentieth at the New Temple, London, on Friday after Midsummer, 55 Henry III, 19s. 6d.; and to the collectors of the twentieth in the county of Wilts a mark, and to the collectors in the county of Dorset 67s. 2d., for the twentieth incident to them and their villeins; as the king is informed by the said Giles; and acquittance to the prior and convent of these sums.

Confirmation of a sale made by Terry le Alemaund, king's yeoman, to Lucy late the wife of William de la Launde of the wardship of the lands and heirs of the said William with the marriage of the heirs and the marriage of the said Lucy, which the king lately granted to the said Terry.

The abbot of Beaulieu Regis, going beyond seas, has appointed before the king William le Cornwaleys and John de Ciecrest his monks, as his attorneys; and at his instance the king has granted that they may make other attorneys for him as they will: for one year from St. Peter's Chains.

To the taxers and collectors of the twentieth and the sheriffs in the counties of Wilts, Dorset, Southampton, Oxford, Berks, Buckingham, Warwick, Norfolk, Suffolk, Northampton, Essex, Middlesex, Surrey and Sussex. Because the prior of Okeburn has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to him and his villeins, the king commands them not to tax their goods by occasion of the twentieth but to let them be quit of the twentieth.
