1271.

Membrane 11—cont.

Safe conduct until Easter, at the instance of the said Margaret, for the said Hugh, now carrying on his merchandise within the realm of Scotland, so that if he should return to Flanders with his harness and his own household through the realm of England, neither he nor his men or goods shall be arrested by occasion of the king's contention with the countess of Flanders; on condition that neither he nor his men carry on merchandise in the realm.

Grant to Richard de Waldeshef, king's yeoman, in lieu of all debts and arrears of wages wherein the king is bound to him, of the marriage of Maud late the wife of Simon de Cryoll who held in chief, or any fine she make for the marriage or the forfeiture due to the king if she marry another against the will of the king or of the said Richard; on this condition that if he have not the marriage, fine or forfeiture, the king shall be bound to him in debts and arrears as before.

Grant to William de Columbariis, king's yeoman, of the ransom of the lands of Hubert Chaumpeneys, if any belong to the king according to the form of the award of Kenilworth.

Exemption for life, at the instance of W. archbishop of York, of John le Botiller from being put on assizes &c. and from being made &c.

July 6. Protection with clause volumus, for three years, for Grimbald Westminster. Pauncetofte.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Joan late the wife of William Charles.

The like for two years for brother Richard de Menilio, bailiff in England of the abbot of Fécamp.

Grant to Poncius de Mora, in part payment of the debts wherein the king is bound to him for wines taken from him, of 1,000l. out of the 1,040l. which R. le Bygot, earl of Norfolk and marshal of England, owes clear at the Exchequer, to wit, of the portion contingent upon him of the money due to the king for the heirs of Walter Marshal from Easter, in the thirtieth year, when the king began to pay to Simon de Monteforti, sometime earl of Leicester, and Eleanor his wife, countess of Pembroke, 400l. a year for the said heirs and Margaret, sometime countess of Lincoln, up to the same feast, in the forty-ninth year, to wit, for nineteen years; with promise that the king will have the said 1,000l. levied on the lands and goods of the earl with all speed and paid to him; on condition that the remaining 40l. remain to the king for the expenses of the household; and if the said 1,000l. cannot be levied in full at present, the king will cause him to be satisfied for what is deficient.

July 8. Acknowledgment that the abbess of St. Mary de la Pré, Northampton, has made fine with the king and satisfied him of the fine for the twentieth of the goods of her and her villeins; and mandate to all to let them be quit of that twentieth.

The like to the following:—

The prior of Newstead.

The prior of Finneshevede.