Ellis de Bristoll, servant of Nicholas de Lodelawe.
Ralph de Bredestrete, citizen and merchant of London.
Robert le White, servant of Robert Puterel, merchant of Winchester.
Martin Moryn, for himself and Warin de Crock, his fellow, merchants of Edward the king's son, of Crock, for 25 sacks of wool.
Richard de Legh, merchant of Southampton.
The same, for himself and Bernard de Crock, for 36 sacks of wool.
William de Brakeleye, citizen of London.
Richard Dygun, citizen and merchant of London.
Eudo de Dorkyng, citizen and merchant of London.
Richard de Wendlesworth, citizen of London.
John de Lyne', citizen of London.
Robert Hauteyn, citizen and merchant of London.
Em' Griffun, merchant of London.
Henry de Mustrel, servant of John Baeye, the king of France's merchant of Mustrell, for 5 sacks of wool.
Richard de Araz, the king of France's merchant, for 100 sacks of wool.
Gilbert de Brayford.
Daniel de Dychton, the king of France's merchant of Amiens, for 5 sacks of wool.
Peter Wylekyn, merchant of the king of France, for 8 sacks of wool.
Reynold son of Reybald de Greynyng, the king of Almain's merchant of Greynyng, for 50 sacks of wool.
Peter Berardi, the king of France's merchant of Caurs, for 400 sacks of wool.
Peter de Furno, servant of William de Wyles, the king of France's merchant of Amyas, for himself and his lord for two ships laden with 120 sacks.
Peter Beraudi, the king of France's merchant of Caurs, for 400 sacks.
Hartmann le Moneke, the king of Almain's merchant of Lubek, for 100 sacks.
Peter Beraudi, the king of France's merchant of Caurs, for 400 sacks.
John son of Bernard, for himself and Aumf'us Moryn, and William de la Puchade, the king of France's merchants of Caurs, for 163 sacks of wool.
Peter Beraudi, the king of France's merchant of Caurs, for 400 sacks of wool.
Robert le Coynte and Simon le Coynte, the king of France's merchants of Amiens, for 8 sacks of wool.
John le Normand and Simon Averdras, merchants of the king of France, for 37 sacks of wool.
William Taulare, for himself and John de Bureburgh, the king of France's merchants of St. Omer, and Baldwin Turmeye, the said king's merchant of Caleys, for 45 sacks of wool and 6 sacks of wool-fells.
Godschalk de Berefeld, the king of France's merchant of Berfeld, for 75 sacks of wool.