Membrane 7—cont.

Aug. 7.
Westminster.

Guy de Ermenye, the king of France's merchant of Amiens, 2 sacks.
Fulk de Dynaunt, the king of Almain's merchant of Dynaunt, 35 sacks.
John de Soterinton, servant of William de Wyles and of John de Cokerel, the king of France's merchants of Amiens, 120 sacks.
Monerus de Sorcers, and Giles de Sancto Fuccano, merchants of Amiens, 20 sacks.
Nicholas de Bene, the king of France's merchant of Corby, 80 sacks.
Gerard de Panis, servant of John Flemeng, the king of France's merchant of Nele, 30 sacks.
Hugh de Beverle, servant of Robert le Petite, the king of France's merchant of Amiens, 12 sacks.
John Ryvel, the said king's merchant of Amiens, 15 sacks.
James de Digny and John de Digny, the said king's merchants of Amiens, 7 sacks.
Firmin le Gardiner, the said king's merchant of Amiens, 11 sacks.
Monerus de Sorcers, for himself and John de Haungard, the said king's merchant of Amiens, 60 sacks.
Drew de Malerbe, merchant of the king of France, 60 sacks.
Simon Averdras, the king of France's merchant of Amiens, 24 sacks.
Giles de la Sale, merchant of St. Omer, 1 sack.
Peter Averdras, the king of France's merchant of Amiens, 8 sacks.
Christian Cazreth, servant of Antony le Reyniss', the king of France's merchant of St. Omer, 30 sacks.
Peter le Arme and Michael le Four, the king's merchants of Paris, 12 sacks.
Henry de Flerding, the king of Almain's merchant of Flerding, 21 sacks.
John Lichershech, for himself and Dittimer de Sussagh, the king of Almain's merchant of Sussagh, 30 sacks of wool and 20 weys (ponderibus) of cheese.
Godin Sachels, the king of Almain's merchant of Dynaunt, 62 sacks.
John Watterye, the said king's merchant of Dynaunt, 20 sacks.
Eborard Krane, fellow of John de Everle, merchant of the king of Almain, 15 sacks.
John Lyun, the said king's merchant of Loveyn, for himself and Henry de Loveyn, 64 sacks.
Warin le Hucher, servant of John le Chaumberlyn, and Everard le Fraunceys, merchants of the king of Almain, 100 sacks, 1 pocket.
Thomas Malecotel of Amiens, 40 sacks.
Stephen Piket, the king of France's merchant of Amiens, 40 sacks.
Gerard de Panes, servant of Warin Piket and of John de Benes, merchants of Amiens, 80 sacks.
Lambert son of Lambert Maunger, for himself and Lambert Maunger, and John de Sancto Omero, the said king's merchants of St. Omer, 100 sacks.
Gerard Caleward, for himself and John Scoff', 32 sacks, 4 pockets.
Nicholas le Baker, fellow of Arnold Boym, merchant of Almain, 50 sacks.