Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Philip Flury, going to Ireland on the affairs of Agnes de Valencia.

Pardon, at the instance of William de Bulay, to Simon le Camb' of Keletern for the death of John de Dlesebey, whom he killed in self defence.

Power to Stephen de Penecestre, warden of the Cinque Ports, to receive from merchants of the Cinque Ports who wish to export wool to parts beyond sea an oath that they will not take the wool to Flanders or elsewhere within the power of the countess of Flanders during the contention between the king and her, which oath they are required to make pursuant to the licence granted by the king, by his council, for merchants of the realm to take their wool beyond seas.

Whereas Queen Eleanor, because of the frequent change of her estate and for her greater security has requested of the king licence to make her will; licence for her accordingly.

Licence for life for Peter de Wintonia, keeper of the wardrobe, to hunt with his own dogs the hare, the fox, the badger and the cat through the forests of the counties of Southampton, Wilts, Oxford, Berks, Worcester, Warwick, Buckingham, Northampton and Essex.

Aug. 8. Grant to Robert de Radleg, yeoman of Geoffrey de Leziniaco, Westminster, who is going to Ireland, that Robert de Scardeburg and Th[omas] de Eboraco, clerks, whom he has appointed before the king as his attorneys, shall be admitted as such and may make other attorneys for him; until Midsummer.

The like for the abbot of Newminster, going to his general Cistercian chapter, and his attorney is brother Roger de Aketon; until All Saints.

Pardon, at the instance of W. archbishop of York, to John de Sutton for the death of John Buck, of Riggewode; as it appears by inquisition made by Henry de Wolavynton that he killed him in self defence.

Protection for one year for the abbot and convent of Croyland; and no one is to disquiet them in their fair at Croyland which they have by grant of the king's progenitors and the king's confirmation thereof, to wit, on the feast of St. Bartholomew the Apostle, in whose honour their church is founded.

Licence for Benedict de Lincolnia, Jew of Lincoln, to sell in accordance with the late provision, to W. archbishop of York a debt wherein Roger de Eyvill of Wauton is bound to him.

The like for the following Jews to grant the following debts to be sold to the said archbishop:—

The debt of Henry de Penbrugg to Gamaliel and Elias, sons of Aaron, Jews of Oxford.

The debt of William Marenni of Luton to Aaron son of Crespyn, Jew of London.

The debt of Henry de Penbrugg, deceased, to Aaron Sampsonis, and Ursel, sons and heirs of Hak, Jew of Worcester.