Simple protection without clause, for two years, for Ralph Pikeman, citizen of London.

Aug. 11. Philip de Clare and John de Gatesdene, canons of the house of Westminster. Raveneston, coming to the king with letters patent of their chapter announcing the voidance of their church by the resignation of William de Divisis, their prior, have licence to elect.

Pardon, at the instance of Richard de Waldesheff, king's yeoman, to William de Ticheby of Neuwerk of his trespasses in the time of the disturbance.

Exception for life, at the instance of Queen Eleanor, of John Baudefar, her servant, from being put in assizes, juries &c. and from being made &c. and from being distrained for any debt whereof he is not surety or principal debtor.

Association of the abbot of Croyland with Gilbert de Preston, William de Weylauand, John de Ok' and Walter de Helyun, justices going on eyre to hold common pleas in the county of Lincoln and other counties.

Safe conduct, until All Saints, for William de Perote and Bernard de Burdone, envoys of the king of Aragon, bringing gerfalcons from Norway through the king's land to their king.

Aug. 12. Whereas by the form of the peace entered into between Louis, king of France, and the king, certain lands and fees ought to come to the king after the death of A. count of Poitiers, and the count has now gone the way of all flesh; the king has appointed the abbots of Westminster and St. Albans, and Adam de Novo Mercato and John de la Lynde to sue and receive in his name the said lands from the king of France.

Whereas the bailiffs or attorneys of Edward, the king's son, have received a loan of 3,000 marks from the executors of the will of B. archbishop of Canterbury, the king's uncle, to be sent to Edward in the Holy Land, and W. archbishop of York, has gone bail to the said executors for 1,000 marks of the said 3,000 marks; the king promises, for the archbishop's indemnity, that if the said Edward, his bailiffs or attorneys, do not satisfy the executors according to the form of the contract made, the said 1,000 marks shall be raised from the lands and goods of the said Edward.

The bishops of Coventry and Lichfield, and of Worcester have like letters.

Presentation of Raymond de Bovisvill to the church of Aldington, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to Master Hugh de Mortuo Mari, archdeacon of Canterbury.

Aug. 14. Grant to William de Sancta Eremina, in part payment of 50l. yearly of land in wards or escheats which the king promised to him, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Walter le Botiller, in the