Membrane 4—cont.

The like to Eudo son of Walter de Helleseye, at the instance of Poncius de Fluraco, king’s yeoman.

Whereas Roger Bertram of Mitford granted, by deed, to Agnes daughter of Thomas son of William de la Wodehull his manor and town of Swarland, to hold to her, her heirs and assigns, and she by deed granted the same to Thomas son of Thomas de Karl’, burgess of Newcastle on Tyne, to hold to him and his heirs or assigns, and the king confirmed the said grant; and whereas the said Roger and Agnes are bound to divers Jews in divers debts; grant to the said Thomas that he and his heirs shall not be bound by occasion of the said manor and town to the king or his heirs or the said Jews in any of the said debts.

Protection and safe conduct for a ship of the abbot and convent of Netley (de loco Sancti Edwardi) called La Russynole and the men and goods in her.

Oct. 9. Quittance to the abbot of Eynesham, because he has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to him and his villeins, and the villeins, of the said twentieth.

Exemption for life, at the instance of John le Fauconer, king’s clerk, of William de Bydyk from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c. against his will, and from being distrained for any debt whereof he is not a surety or principal debtor.

Oct. 10. Presentation of John le Rus to the church of Aldermariecherch, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to Master Hugh de Mortuo Mari, archdeacon of Canterbury.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Walter de Chelecumbe, king’s clerk, of John le White from being put on assizes &c. and from being made &c. against his will.

Whereas the king, believing that Gerard de Chassau, to whom B. sometime archbishop of Canterbury, with the assent of the chapter, granted the stewardship of the hall of the priory of Christchurch, Canterbury, for life, was dead, granted the said stewardship to Robert de Rogate, king’s serjeant, in the time of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury, and the said Gerard has come safe and sound before the king and prayed instantly that the said stewardship might be restored to him; the king, not wishing him to be injured, has restored it to him accordingly.

Quittance to the abbot of Winchecumbe, who has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident to him and his villeins, and his villeins of such twentieth.
