1271.

March 14. Licence until Whitunday for Robert de Araz, citizen of London, Westminster, who has found Nicholas de Paris, Hugh de Dunton and Walter Box, citizens and merchants of London, as pledges that he will not take to Flanders or elsewhere within the power of the countess of Flanders nor deal with any merchants of Flanders, in respect of 50 sacks of wool which with the king's licence he is taking to parts beyond seas and that he will make oath before the king that if he do anything contrary to the premises he will answer the king for the trespass and the price of the wool, to trade with the wool and make his profit of it.

The like for the following:—

John de Brilaund, merchant, by pledge of John Wintre and Thierry Caly; for himself and his brother Henry, John Hert and Hermann le Jovene, his fellows, for wool which they will take to parts beyond seas.

Dalerun de Wintonia, by pledge of Hugh de Fufeford and Roger Dalerun of Winchester, for 20 sacks of wool.

Matthew Wermund and Herbert Wermund, merchants of Caumbreye by pledge of William Olyveri, William de Caumbreye, Giles Oliveri, Arnulf de Caumbreye and Giles de Are for 160 (octoviginti) sacks of wool.

Arnold Blaunk and Bonamy de Baylac, merchants of Spain, by pledge of Nicholas de Kigho of the county of Northampton, and Nicholas de Barbeffete and Hugh de Fulf' burgesses of Southampton, for 50 sacks of wool.

Peter Osberg', by pledge of Diutautus and Hugh de la Pape, merchants of London, for 20 sacks of wool.

Hugh de la Flode of Winchester, by pledge of Nicholas de Barbeffete and Geoffrey de la Prise of the county of Southampton for 60 sacks of wool.

The bailiffs and burgesses of Southampton, by mainprise of the same, for 100 sacks of wool.

Arnold de Scotelmund, and John Clipping, merchants of Almain, by pledge of Robert Burnel, Maucolumb de Harley of the county of Salop, and Walter de Haya of the county of Hereford, for 200 sacks of wool.

Arnold le Chapeler, merchant of Paris, by pledge of James de Lede, William Normaunt and Ingram de Botume, for 25 sacks of wool.

Warner de Mundeford, merchant of England, by pledge of Master Hugh de Brome, Edmund de Depham and William de Blafeud of the county of Norfolk, for 33 sacks of wool.

Bartholomew Jacob, merchant of Florence, by pledge of Diututatus Willelmi, Hugh de la Pape, and Hugh son of Robert, merchants of London, for 100 sacks of wool.

James de Lukes, by pledge of Diututatus Willelmi, and others above written, merchants of London, for 40 sacks of wool.

Reynold de Plesencia, by the like pledge for 60 sacks of wool.

Franco de Plesencia, by pledge of Diututatus Willelmi, and Reynold de Plesencia, merchants of London, for 9 sacks of wool.