want of his money which he has often laid out in the purchase of the king’s wines, the king grants him 200 marks out of the farm of the city of London of Easter term next.

Presentation of William de Wintreshull to the church of Chyvening, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to Master Hugh de Mortuo Mari, archdeacon of Canterbury.

Nov. 4. Appointment of Walter de Burges and John le Rus, king’s clerk, Westminster, to survey the corn in the granaries of the void archbishopric of Canterbury, and to value the same by good men of the demesnes of the archbishopric; and, this done, to close, lock and seal the doors of the granaries; as the king is bound to divers creditors in a great sum and desires to satisfy these and other creditors with all speed out of this corn; with writ of aid for them to all bailiffs, knights and other tenants of the archbishopric.

Grant to Richard de Middelton, king’s clerk of the household and chancellor, of the marriage of Isabel late the wife of Robert de Evre, tenant in chief, or the forfeiture if she marry without licence.

Grant to the king’s domestic clerk and chancellor, Richard de Middelton of that which pertains to the king of the marriage of Isabel late the wife of Robert de Evre who holds in chief, and of the forfeiture due if she marry without the licence of the king or the said Richard.

Royal assent to the election of Simon de Weynflete, canon of Grimesby, to be abbot of that place; with mandate to Master John de Meydenstan, archdeacon of Bedeford, vicegerent of R. bishop of Lincoln, who is beyond the seas, to do his part herein.

Nov. 4. Quittance to the prior of Charleye, who has satisfied the king and Edward, his first-born son, of the twentieth incident upon him and his villeins, and the said villeins, of such twentieth.

Simple protection with clause rogamus for two years for the brethren of the hospital of St. Mary Magdalen, Seton.

Grant to Queen Eleanor, towards the expenses of the household, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Robert de Stopham, who held in chief, with the marriage of the heirs; the king to be discharged in respect of the expenses of the queen as the wardship and marriage can be worth by reasonable extent to be made of them.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Master Nicholas de Curteny.

Quittance to the men of the hundred of Bradeford, for 100s. which by order of the king they have delivered to William de Sancta Eremina in satisfaction of the said sum exacted from them for the escape from their keeping of John le Jay, a felon.