1272.

Membrane 27—cont.

Whereas the king has pardoned Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, and those of his household who were against the king's enemies in the battle of Evesham for all trespasses as well in the conflict of Lewes as elsewhere, and Richard le Brun was with the earl on the king's side in the said battle, as the king has learned by the earl's testimony; the king commands all persons not to disturb the said Richard on account of trespasses done by him in the said time.

Grant to Roger le Messeger, messenger of Edmund the king's son, out of the 3d. a day which William de Meleford used to take at the Exchequer of the king's constituted alms, of 1d. a day to be taken by the hands of the sheriff of Cambridge, and 1½d. a day which the said William used to take by the hands of the sheriffs of London and Middlesex; grant also to Master Richard de Radinges, king's serjeant, of the remaining 1½d. a day, to be taken yearly, to wit 1d. a day by the hands of the sheriff of Hereford and ½d. a day by the hands of the sheriffs of London and Middlesex; so that Roger and Richard shall take the same for life as William took in his lifetime.

Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer to cause this to be done and enrolled.

Membrane 26.

Grant, for long service, to William de Wintreshull of the wardship of the lands and heirs of John Gravenel who held of the archbishop of Canterbury, the wardship pertaining to the king by reason of the voidance of the see; with the marriage of the heirs.

Presentation of Bartholomew de Wintreshull to the church of Hadleye, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Canterbury; directed to R. bishop of Norwich.

Quittance to the abbot of Abendon who has satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident on him and his villeins, and his villeins of the said twentieth.

Royal assent to the election of Luke de Wenlok, monk of Shrewsbury, to be abbot of that place, with mandate to R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, to do his part therein.

Confirmation of a lease made by W. archbishop of York, Roger de Mortuo Mari and Robert Burnell, archdeacon of York, supplying the place of Edward the king's son, to Dyutautus Guillelmi, Hugh Pape, Bernard Pape and Donatus his brother, and their fellows, citizens and merchants of Florence, of all the revenues (redditus) arising from the new aid granted to the said Edward throughout the realm of England, from 4 December last until the following Christmas and for one year after.

Assignment to Queen Eleanor for the discharge of the expenses of her household, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of John de Grey with the marriage of the heirs; so that the king will have the wardship and marriage extended and then he shall be discharged of as much of those expenses as the wardship and marriage would be worth by the extent if they should be put up for sale.