Membrane 26—cont.

1272.

Jan. 24. Writ de intendendo to the tenants of the abbey of St. Peter, Shrewsbury, in favour of the above Luke de Wenlok, whose election as abbot has been confirmed by R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, and to whom the king has restored the temporalities of the house.

Jan. 25. Pardon, at the instance of Bertram de Bovisvilla, king’s yeoman and kinsman, to Walter de Nevill of Snarteford, for the death of William le Freman.

Whereas the king granted to Thedisius de Camilla, his household clerk, the relief of Roger de Valletorta, deceased, who held in chief, and he has had and can have little or nothing thereof; grant to him of that which pertains to the king of the relief of Alexander de Balliolo, brother and heir of Hugh de Balliolo, who held in chief, so that the king shall cause the money arising therefrom to be levied and Thedisius to have it.

Because after scrutiny of the rolls of the Exchequer made by order of the king, he is informed by letters under the seal of the Exchequer that Walter de Burgo, sometime keeper of his demesnes, ought to answer for the issues of Brehull and for the increment thereof, and for the assart and meadow of Akele for three parts of the twenty-fourth year and the whole of the twenty-third year; and for the issues of Andevre for the first half of the twenty-fourth year and the whole of the twenty-third year; for the issues of Basingestok and Aulton of the same time, and for the issues of the manor of Fekeham for the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years; and that the said Walter is charged at the Exchequer with 15l. 11s. 11d. for the pannage of Axisholt and for 64 pigs and 4 little pigs of the said time, and with 27l. which he received from Thomas de Leche of the issues of the abbey of Evesham, and 100s. for having an attaint; and also that the said Walter made fine with the king by 400 marks for all trespasses and plaints, of which 400 marks he paid 300 into the Exchequer and the king has pardoned him the residue at the instance of Queen Eleanor; and that he made a view at the Exchequer of the said issues and debts, whereof he was charged, but the roll in which the said view was written was perished in the treasury among other rolls through a flood of rain coming through a broken gutter, at the time when the abbot of Peterborough was treasurer, by which view the said Walter was to have been quit; and further it was contained in the said letters of the treasurer and barons that they believe, as they said before the council, that the said Walter made the said fine not only for the trespasses and plaints, but for all debts, accounts and demands; the king, for the discharge of his soul, remits the demand made on Walter in respect of the said issues, debts and accounts.

Simple protection without clause, for three years, for the abbot and monks of Melros.

Jan. 27 Safe conduct, until St. Peter’s Chains, for the men of Master John de Chishull, dean of St. Paul’s, London, bringing his corn and other goods from his church of Brawatre to St. Paul’s, London, by sea, and to the abbey of Beaulieu Regis.
