Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to cause this to be done and enrolled.

Feb. 10. Whereas the king lately granted to his yeoman Augustine Auger Westminster, what belonged to the king of the year and waste of the lands and goods late of Roger son of John, which came to the king's hands by a felony of the said Roger; and also granted to him and his heirs and assigns the lands, houses and rents and mills late of the said Roger in Dunwich, which are held in chief and belong to the king by reason of the said felony; and the said Augustine, in the king's presence, has surrendered the said lands etc. to the king to the use of Roger Chistrepeny, burgess of Dunwich; grant to the said Roger and his heirs and assigns of the same; saving the right of any.

Feb. 12. Grant to Poncious de Mora, king's merchant, and his heirs and assigns, in discharge of the king's debts to him, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of William de Say, who held in chief; so that when an extent has been made of the lands so much shall be deducted from the said debts as the wardship would be worth if put up for sale now.

Pardon, at the instance of W. archbishop of York, to Robert le Fraunceis, for the death of Warin de Pleibroc.

MEMBRANE 23.

Feb. 10. Whereas Nicholas de Cryoil, who held in chief, with the assent of Westminster. the king and the attorneys of Edward the king's son, gave to Gilbert Peche the marriage of Nicholas his son, and afterwards gave to his son and Margery daughter of the said Gilbert whom he married, the manor of Benehale, co. Suffolk, and his said son, with the assent of his father, dowered Margery of the said manor, so that if he, the said son, should die without heir begotten of the said Margery, or die under age, the whole manor should remain to her in dower for her life, saving to Edward the king's son the value thereof during the nonage of Nicholas the son, if his father die before he attain his full age, as is more fully contained in writings made between Gilbert and Nicholas which the king has inspected; the king, for 50 marks paid by Gilbert, confirms the said writings to Gilbert, Nicholas the son and Margery his wife.

Grant for life to Pentecost de Farnham of Id. a day which Reynold Talun, late king's serjeant, took in his lifetime out of the issues of the county of Cambridge.

Notification to the taxers and collectors of the twentieth and the sheriffs in the counties of Middlesex, Essex, Hertford and Kent that the prior and convent of the Holy Trinity, London, have satisfied the king and Edward his son of the twentieth incident on them and their villeins; and therefore the king commands them to permit the said prior and convent and villeins to be quit thereof.

Mandate to all persons to permit the master and priors of the order of Sempingham and their villeins to be quit of the said twentieth and
